Congratulations Ogden College Class of 2018!

WKU's 183rd Commencement Ceremony and official degree conferral will take place Friday, May 11th in Houchens Industries-L.T. Smith Stadium (rain or shine) immediately followed by the Big Red Bash and fireworks on WKU South Lawn.

Ogden College of Science & Engineering Recognition Ceremony will be noon Saturday, May 12th in E.A. Diddle Arena.

All graduates and families are encouraged and welcome to attend events on both days.

Schedule of Events
Friday, May 11th

Topper Walk — 5pm

Graduates should plan to arrive in front of the Kentucky Museum by 4pm. Look for signage to gather with your fellow Ogden College students and faculty.

Students will receive their Class of 2018 red towels to wave as they Topper Walk from the Kentucky Museum into L.T. Smith Stadium. Family and friends can watch the procession down the hill, then they will find their seats also in the family and friends sections of L.T. Smith Stadium.

Commencement Ceremony — 6pm

Houchens Industries-L.T. Smith Stadium (rain or shine)

Western Kentucky University's Commencement Ceremony will begin once students have been seated in L.T. Smith Stadium from the inaugural Topper Walk. During the Commencement Ceremony, each college will acknowledge their graduates, and President Timothy C. Caboni will present the graduates to the Board of Regents for the conferral of degrees.

Big Red Bash — 7pm

WKU South Lawn

New to the commencement schedule, the Big Red Bash will feature live music from Tyrone Dunn and Kin-Foke, entertainment, food vendors, and celebrations at the Ogden College tent. Stay a little while and enjoy the fireworks!

Schedule of Events
Saturday, May 12th

Ogden College of Science & Engineering Recognition Ceremony — 12pm

E.A. Diddle Arena

Graduate and Undergraduate students of Ogden College will again put on cap and gown to "walk the line" as family and friends listen for their special graduate's name to be read and the new WKU alumni shake hands with WKU President Timothy C. Caboni, Ogden College Dean Cheryl Stevens, and faculty members from their respective units of study.

Complete information can be found on the WKU Commencement webpage:

https://www.wku.edu/commencement/

WKU Ogden Science & Engineering

CLASS OF 2018