As summer approaches we delight in the abundance of local produce at the Bowling Green farmers markets. The months of June and July bring juicy berries – blueberries, blackberries, and raspberries. July will bring tomatoes, beans, sweet corn, peppers, and peaches to the markets. Other than produce, farmers markets are also filled with bedding plants, flowers, baked goods, candy, jams and jellies, honey, meat, milk, ice cream, cheese, eggs, cooked food and more. Locations where you can “Buy Local” include:

Bowling Green Farmers Market, located on Scottsville Rd. in front of Hobby Lobby, open April-October, Tuesday, Thursday & Saturday, 7 a.m. - sell out, bgfarmersmarket.com
SOKY Market Place, located in downtown Bowling Green next to SKyPAC, open April-November, Tuesday & Saturday, 8 a.m. – 1 p.m., skyfarmersmarket.com
Community Farmers Market, located at 2413 Nashville Rd. next to the WKU Store, open year round, Tuesday 2 p.m. – 6 p.m., Saturday 8 a.m. – 1 p.m., communityfarmersmarketbg.com

Agrotourism is so much more than farmers markets. It is defined as, “The act of visiting a working farm or any agricultural, horticultural, or agribusiness operations for the purpose of enjoyment, education, or active involvement in the activities of the farm or operation.” Two prime examples of agrotourism in Bowling Green are Chaney’s Dairy Barn and Jackson’s Orchard & Nursery.

Chaney’s Dairy Barn (www.chaneysdairybarn.com) is located at 9191 Nashville Rd. They feature delicious ice cream, homemade soups and sandwiches, Kentucky Proud gifts, dairy farm tours, hay rides, and “Ice Cream & a Moovie” nights June through August as well as many other special events.

Jackson’s Orchard & Nursery (www.jacksonsorchard.com) is located at 1280 Slim Island Rd. They feature fruit, vegetables, nursery plants, and three annual festivals: peach, apple, & pumpkin. Historically, the peach festival takes place near the Fourth of July. There will be peaches, summer apples, fresh vegetables, homemade peach ice cream, fried pies, and more.

For a comprehensive list of agrotourism sites in South Central Kentucky visit www.kentuckyfarmsarefun.com and search their attraction database under the “Caves, Lakes, & Corvettes” region. Sites to visit include Christmas tree farms, distilleries and breweries, farmers markets, bed & breakfast stays, horse farms and racing, livestock, museums, gardens, orchards, and u-pick sites.

For the most up-to-date Golden Moments calendar, visit http://www.wku.edu/aging/senior-events.php. To request a printed copy or for more information, please call WKU Aging at 270-745-3177.

As summer approaches we delight in the abundance of local produce at the Bowling Green farmers markets. The months of June and July bring juicy berries – blueberries, blackberries, and raspberries. July will bring tomatoes, beans, sweet corn, peppers, and peaches to the markets. Other than produce, farmers markets are also filled with bedding plants, flowers, crafts, baked goods, candy, jams and jellies, honey, meat, milk, ice cream, cheese, eggs, cooked food and more. Locations where you can “Buy Local” include:

Bowling Green Farmers Market, located on Scottsville Rd. in front of Hobby Lobby, open April-October, Tuesday, Thursday & Saturday, 7 a.m. - sell out, bgfarmersmarket.com
SOKY Market Place, located in downtown Bowling Green next to SKyPAC, open April-November, Tuesday & Saturday, 8 a.m. – 1 p.m., skyfarmersmarket.com
Community Farmers Market, located at 2413 Nashville Rd. next to the WKU Store, open year round, Tuesday 2 p.m. – 6 p.m., Saturday 8 a.m. – 1 p.m., communityfarmersmarketbg.com

Agrotourism is so much more than farmers markets. It is defined as, “The act of visiting a working farm or any agricultural, horticultural, or agribusiness operations for the purpose of enjoyment, education, or active involvement in the activities of the farm or operation.” Two prime examples of agrotourism in Bowling Green are Chaney’s Dairy Barn and Jackson’s Orchard & Nursery.

Chaney’s Dairy Barn (www.chaneysdairybarn.com) is located at 9191 Nashville Rd. They feature delicious ice cream, homemade soups and sandwiches, Kentucky Proud gifts, dairy farm tours, hay rides, and “Ice Cream & a Moovie” nights June through August as well as many other special events.

Jackson’s Orchard & Nursery (www.jacksonsorchard.com) is located at 1280 Slim Island Rd. They feature fruit, vegetables, nursery plants, and three annual festivals: peach, apple, & pumpkin. Historically, the peach festival takes place near the Fourth of July. There will be peaches, summer apples, fresh vegetables, homemade peach ice cream, fried pies, and more.

For a comprehensive list of agrotourism sites in South Central Kentucky visit www.kentuckyfarmsarefun.com and search their attraction database under the “Caves, Lakes, & Corvettes” region. Sites to visit include Christmas tree farms, distilleries and breweries, farmers markets, bed & breakfast stays, horse farms and racing, livestock, museums, gardens, orchards, and u-pick sites.

For the most up-to-date Golden Moments calendar, visit http://www.wku.edu/aging/senior-events.php. To request a printed copy or for more information, please call WKU Aging at 270-745-3177.