

Community Resource Guide

Western Kentucky University
ALIVE Center
for Community Partnerships

Revised January 2012

COMMUNITY RESOURCE GUIDE

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Child and Family Services.....	03
Disability Services.....	06
Education	07
Food and Material Assistance	08
Health	11
Housing and Shelters.....	12
International Assistance.....	13
Legal Assistance	14
Senior Services.....	14
Transportation.....	15

The Community Resource Guide is updated every January. Printed copies are available at the ALIVE Center located at 1818 31W ByPass in Bowling Green, KY. A digital copy is available on our website at www.wkualivecenter.com. Please contact alivebg@wku.edu to request changes or additions to this Community Resource Guide.

CHILD AND FAMILY SERVICES

Community Action - Child Care Centers

270-782-3162

921 Beauty Avenue

171 Center Street

Provides quality, affordable child care services for ages six weeks and older to area families with a childcare center in Bowling Green and one each in Brownsville and Edmonton. Locations of Centers: Little Scholars - 701 Brownslock Road #809, Bowling Green, KY 42101; 210 Main Street, Brownsville, KY 42210; and 770 Industrial Drive, Suite 2, Edmonton, KY 42129.

Community Action – Comm. Collaborations for Children - Support Service Aides

270-782-3162

921 Beauty Avenue

Provides services to children and families in cooperation with Department for Community Based Services Protection and Permanency; this project provides enhancement and preventative services to families in crisis or children at risk of abuse or neglect.

Community Action - Family Preservation, Family Reunification, and FACTS

270-782-3162

921 Beauty Avenue

Provides in-home crisis intervention services to families referred by the Department of Community Based Services; therapist works to keep families together and safe, or reunite family members who have been separated.

Department for Community Based Services – Family Support

270-746-7850

1010-1020 State Street

Provides food stamp benefits, Medicaid and other medical benefits for the elderly, medical transportation, Kchip and Kinship Care, KTAP, and KPC.

Department for Community Based Services – Protection and Permanency

270-746-7447

1010-1020 State Street

Child protection, adult protection, and foster care and adoption. Division of aging and independent living. Wards of the state.

Family Enrichment Center, Inc.

270-781-6714

441 Church Avenue

Empowering families and preventing child abuse by providing education, social support, crisis intervention, and a safe environment for children and their families. Services include Wee Care Nursery, Parent Education, Home Visitation Program, supervised visitation, Adoption Resource Center, Parents as Teachers, Respite Child Care, parent support groups, and child abuse community awareness. Respite Child Care is a program for parents looking for temporary child care who are financially unable to secure child care. Respite is a free service to those who are receiving services from the Department for Community Based Services experiencing a crisis and those who are in the Foster Program. There is a $15.00 fee to those not receiving these services.

Lifeskills Adult Crisis Stabilization Unit270-901-5000*822 Woodway Drive

Provides a place to stay and stabilize circumstances, emotions, and/or chemistry for people with severe mental illness such as depression, anxiety disorders, bipolar disorders, schizophrenia, and other serious and chronic mental illness. Professionals work together with and encourage consumers and family members to resolve issues and situations that may have contributed to the crisis. Services are provided in a supportive environment without leaving the community or entering a hospital. Each resident is evaluated by mental health professionals and is involved in the development of his or her own personal treatment plan.

Lifeskills Child and Family Center270-901-5000*380 Suwanee Trail Street

Provides counseling, case management, home visitation, and assessments for child mental health clientele.

Lifeskills Child Crisis Stabilization Unit270-901-5000*501 Chestnut Street

Provides a 24-hour crisis stabilization program for child mental health clientele ages 7 to 17 in a very informal, non-threatening environment.

Lifeskills Park Place Recovery Center270-901-5000*822 Woodway Drive

The Park Place Recovery Center is a 14 to 28 day residential, 20 bed, co-ed treatment facility where women and men are housed separately. It offers non-medical detox services, psychotherapy, parenting and educational groups, individual counseling, medical lectures, gender-specific, 12-step groups and after care services. An assessment fee of $50 is charged. Park Place is open to all residents of the 10-county area. Other Kentucky State residents will be admitted with a referral.

Lifeskills Regional Prevention Center270-901-5000*380 Suwanee Trail Street

Provides information, educational programs, and technical assistance on tobacco, drugs, and violence for at risk youth and adults; also provides substance abuse prevention coordination for ASAP (Agency for Substance Abuse Policy).

Lifeskills Service Center270-901-5000*380 Suwanee Trail Street

Provides counseling, case management, and therapeutic rehabilitation for adult mental health clientele; also has a Home Shelter program to aid with housing needs, a Supported Employment program, group therapy day program, and the Wishing Well Clubhouse for clientele.

Lifeskills Supports for Community Living270-901-5000*380 Suwannee Trail Street

Serves individuals with mental retardation and developmental disabilities to provide them with whatever services they may need.

Lifeskills Therapeutic Foster Care270-901-5000*380 Suwannee Trail Street

Lifeskills TFC program is designed to provide care for children who have complex emotional needs requiring special parenting skills. Children placed in TFC homes can include boys or girls of any age and race. They may have had relationship problems in the community, in their families, or in school. Many are victims of neglect: social, physical, emotional or sexual abuse. They are in need of quality foster care in order to prevent placement in a residential facility or psychiatric hospital.

Needy Children of Warren County270-781-7355*908 East 11th Street

Needy Children of Warren County Fund, Inc. is a non-profit organization helping needy children in Warren County with necessities such as coats, school supplies, clothing, and other basic needs. At Christmas we provide a Christmas Party with dinner and presents for referred children. Money donations are appreciated to facilitate this project.

Potter Children's Home and Family Ministries270-843-3038*2350 Nashville Road

Potter Children's Home provides several services to children and families in need. All referrals are private and no fees are charged for services. Residential Group Care (children 6-18 years old), Single Parent Alliance for Raising Kids family ministry, Transitional Living (serves young people 18-23 years), foster care, adoption, and Christian counseling. Our mission is to be a tool in the hands of supporting Churches of Christ and individual Christians to deliver God's justice and mercy to children and families in need.

Pregnancy Support Center, Inc.270-781-5050*1439 Magnolia Street

Pregnancy Support Center provides pregnancy testing with positive referrals, help with maternity clothes, parenting training, baby showers, counseling, and educational information.

South Central Kentucky Council of the Blind (SCKCB)270-782-9325 or 270-745-4733*1564 Normal St.*Bowling Green, KY 42101*Email: sckcb@sckcb.org*Website: <http://www.sckcb.org>

Provides personal and family support to low-vision and blind Children and their families, including, independent living skills, advocacy, resources for all types of low-vision and blind related devices, products, and services, and a very liberal grant program for obtaining such products and services. We hold regular meetings featuring exhibitions and the latest information on the availability of new products and services, fun activities, and strong, positive support for children losing their eyesight or with low-vision, or children who are totally blind from the youngest child to older teens. We have a free report available upon request entitled: “Are You the Parents of A Blind Child?”

UK Targeted Assessment Program

270-746-7124/ 270-746-7125

1010 State Street

Provides screening interviews, consultation with other service providers, referrals, home visits, one to one assistance to help client obtain services, assessments for domestic violence, mental health, learning problems, and substance abuse.

WKU Child Care Resource and Referral

270-745-2216

Jones Jagers Hall, WKU

For families we: • Help you find child care that meets your needs • Provide information about resources to pay for child care • Give you information to help you as you make decisions about child care • Connect you with advocacy activities • Answer your questions about young children. For early childhood professionals we: • Provide monthly workshops • Have a resource library of books, videos, and toys • Provide consultation on quality initiatives, such as accreditation • Publish a monthly newsletter • Answer your questions about working with young children. For business and industry we: • Conduct a needs assessment of your employees. • Provide training on parenting and child care issues for your employees • Provide articles about parenting and child care to include in your company newsletter or bulletin boards • Provide enhanced referrals to help your employees find dependable and high quality child care • Assist you with setting up a company child care program or building partnerships with existing child care programs. For our communities we: • Gather information about child care needs and resources. • Collaborate with other agencies by serving on committees and boards, including announcements in our newsletter or web page, connecting parents and professionals to the right agency for services, and co-sponsoring events. • Provide information about how to start a child care business. • Submit early care and education related articles to newspapers and newsletters • Create early care and education related public service announcements.

WKU Child Care Centers

270-745-4042

125 Jones Jagers Hall

WKU Child Care Centers operates a combination early Head Start, Head Start, and nonprofit child care program for children six weeks to five years old. Open to university and community members.

DISABILITY SERVICES

Disability Resource Initiative

270-796-5992

624 Eastwood Avenue

Disability Resource Initiative provides independent living skills training, peer support, advocacy, personal care attendant program, computer training program, Neighbor to Neighbor transportation program, and information and referrals for disabled persons. Meeting space is available to not-for-profit organizations. Call for availability. DRI accepts donations of medical equipment in good condition.

Evergreen Presbyterian Ministries270-846-0565*1830 Destiny Lane, Suite 106*Bowling Green, KY 42104

Evergreen Presbyterian Ministries, Inc. provides excellent services that support adults with developmental and intellectual disabilities, helping them to build better lives. Call for more information.

South Central Kentucky Council of the Blind (SCKCB)270-782-9325*1564 Normal Street*Bowling Green, KY 42101*Email: sckcb@sckcb.org*Website: <http://www.sckcb.org>

Provides personal and family support to low-vision and blind individuals, independent living skills, advocacy, resources for all types of low-vision and blind related devices, products, and services, and a very liberal grant program for obtaining such products and services. We hold regular meetings featuring exhibitions and the latest information on the availability of new products and services, fun activities, and strong, positive support for people losing their eyesight, people with low-vision, and people who are totally blind of all ages from young children and their families and older seniors.

EDUCATION

Community Action - Adult Education and Job Development270-622-0185*25 J.L. Turner and Son Place, Scottsville, KY 42276

Provides basic literacy, GED preparation, personal life skills, and job readiness training for adults and out-of-school youth.

Community Action - Head Start Program270-782-3162*921 Beauty Avenue

Provides a comprehensive child development program for 3-4 year old low-income and special needs children. The children and families receive services in education, health, nutrition, social, special needs, and parent involvement. Location of Centers: EHS 200 East Fourth St. Bowling Green, KY 42101 and Little Scholars for Warren County. For more information about all 10 locations, visit www.casoky.org.

Bowling Green Technical College Adult Learning Center270-901-1017/270-901-1087*1845 Loop Drive

Provides GED preparation, ESL, citizenship, basic literacy, NCRC (National Career Readiness Certificate), employability skills training (include resume writing, letter of application, job interview skills, etc.), refresher classes for students entering post-secondary education, and basic computer skills. Students must be 16 years or older and withdrawn from the regular school system. We have classes at the college, Parker Bennett-Curry, and Warren County Regional Jail.

Lifeskills Industries270-901-5000*2420 Russellville Road

Provides community employment services for people ages 16 and older with a mild to severe disability; Consists of vocational evaluation, job preparation services, School-to-Work program, employment options services, individualized screening, job development opportunities, and follow-up services.

TRiO Educational Opportunity Centers270-745-4441*Jones Jagers Hall, WKU

Serves individuals interested in continuing education and can provide them with educational information, Financial Aid information, referral services, application assistance, academic advising, career counseling and workshops; preference given to those individuals who do not hold a four-year degree, are first generation college students or have low income.

Website: www.wku.edu/eoc

WKU Literacy Center270-745-2809/270-745-2207*401 Tate Page Hall, WKU

Western Kentucky University Literacy Center provides personal, individualized diagnostic evaluation and continuing intervention to students in 1st through 12th grades and adult learners to foster the enjoyment of reading.

FOOD AND MATERIAL ASSISTANCE

American Red Cross270-781-7377*430 Center Street

Disaster services, health and safety services, services to military families and veterans, international tracing services, blood services and food assistance.

Barren River Area Safe Space270-781-9334

Provides emergency shelter, food, clothing, counseling, case management, court advocacy, children's services, and referrals to other agencies for victims of domestic violence.

Bellewood Family Services270-796-2012*918 State Street

Assistance provided upon acceptance. Bellewood Family Services offers community based treatment for qualified at-risk youth in hopes of providing a successful intervention that may prevent children from becoming involved, or further involved in the court system. Also offers therapeutic foster care.

Broadway United Methodist Church270-843-3942*1323 Melrose Street

Limited food baskets. All other materials assistance provided through HOTEL INC.

Churches United in Christ Help Ministry
270-842-4307

A joint ministry of Downtown Bowling Green churches, providing assistance with rent, utilities and other crisis matters.

Community Action – LIHEAP
270-782-4437

171 Center Street

Assistance with heating, e.g., gas, electric, propane and wood.

First Baptist Church

270-842-0331

621 East 12th Avenue

Helping Hands Ministry: Monday and Wednesday from 10 a.m. to Noon. They help only once every 6 months.

Forest Park Baptist Church
270-843-3419

520 Old Morgantown Road

Utility bills only – Tuesdays from 9 to 11. Please bring past due bills or disconnect notice.

Helping Hands
270-745-7222

1901 Russellville Road

Helping Hands assists with clothing, furniture, and household items for those in an emergency or crisis situation; must be referred through an agency.

Hope House
270-904-1200

112 W 10th Street

According to hopehousebg.com, Hope House exists to alleviate physical & spiritual poverty through gospel restoration. During the year, Hope House provides food and material assistance to individuals in the community. For more information about Hope House, feel free to call them at 270-904-1200.

HOTEL INC
270-782-1263

1005 Boatlanding Road

An ecumenical organization that provides material assistance such as Manna Mart (food bank on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays from 10-1), monetary assistance for those in need (first and third Tuesday of each month starting at 9am – phone calls only), and group discussions and Bible studies on Wednesday and Friday mornings.

Life Care Ministry
270-781-8804

Food and Clothing Supply

Salvation Army
270-843-3485

400 West Main Street

Primary role is to provide shelter and food to those in need, as well as make referrals to other community services; transportation vouchers, heating assistance when funds are available.

Social Security Administration877-801-0817*2724 Chandler Drive

Administers various programs under the Social Security Act, including retirement, disability, survivors and Supplemental Security Income (SSI).

St. Vincent DePaulSt. Joseph Conference*1133 Adams Street – The Tomorrow Center Building*270-393-9800*Holy Spirit Conference*4754 Smallhouse Road*270-781-0432

Financial aid for utilities, prescription medication and shelter at the Salvation Army. Provides food, clothing and household items as needed. Donations accepted of clothing, furniture, household items, small appliances, vehicles and other items. The recycling of these items helps the St. Vincent De Paul Society provide a variety of services and assistance for needy individuals and families in Warren County.

Local schools that provide material assistance to students and families

- Alvaton Elementary Family Resource Center - 270-846-1231
- Bowling Green High Youth Services Center - 270-746-2304
- Bowling Green Junior High Youth Services Center - 270-746-2294
- Briarwood Elementary Family Resource Center - 270-783-4599
- Bristow Elementary Family Resource Center - 270-843-4098
- Cumberland Trace Elementary Family Resource Center - 270-781-6651
- Dishman-McGinnis Elementary Family Resource Center - 270-746-2254
- Drakes Creek Middle School Youth Services Center - 270-467-0262
- Henry Moss Middle Youth Service Center - 270-843-2172
- North Warren Elementary Family Resource Center - 270-563-9857
- Oakland Elementary Family Resource Center - 270-563-9886
- Parker-Bennett Curry Elementary Family Resource Center - 270-746-2274
- Potter Gray Elementary Family Resource Center - 270-746-2284
- Rich Pond Elementary Family Resource Center - 270-843-4422
- Rockfield Elementary Family Resource Center - 270-843-2724
- South Warren Middle and High School Youth Service Center – 270-467-7510
- T.C. Cherry Elementary Family Resource Center - 270-746-2234
- W. R. McNeil Family Resource Center - 270-746-2264
- Warren Central High Youth Services Center - 270-781-0903
- Warren East High Youth Service Center - 270-781-9875
- Warren East Middle Youth Service Center - 270-843-3118
- Warren Elementary Family Resource Center - 270-843-3503
- William H. Natcher Elementary Family Resource Center - 270-842-3178

HEALTH

Alcoholics Anonymous

270-782-5267

1013 East 13th Avenue

Alcoholics Anonymous - Open meetings for anyone who wants to know more about alcoholism. Closed meetings are for members only. There are many times and locations for meetings. Call for more information on AA or on the following support groups: Alateen, Al-Anon and Parents of Alcoholic Children. See also 'Support Groups' on the ALIVE Center Web site.

Barren River District Health Department

270-781-8039

1109 State Street

Provides community health services, immunizations, preventive clinical services, environmental health services, and health information services.

Commonwealth Health Free Clinic

270-781-9260

740 East 10th Street

Provides basic medical and dental services to individuals who are in the workforce but do not have insurance or any form of social assistance and do not have the means to pay for their healthcare; income guidelines vary per program please call for more information. Low cost dental services to those who are uninsured.

Depressed Anonymous

270-782-7150

Depressed Anonymous (DA) is a 12 step Peer Support Group that helps people struggling with depression to generate new positive energies, form networks of friendship and support, and give each other the strength to live each day with hope. DA meets twice a week in Bowling Green, at two different locations: Tuesdays, from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. at Broadway United Methodist Church (off Westen, 1323 Melrose Drive, Bowling Green). For more information, call Katherine at (270) 782-7150, or email at kelane14@aol.com. NOTE: This group meets every week, including holidays. Thursdays, from 1 to 2 p.m. at the ALIVE Center (1818 31-W Bypass).

Fairview Community Health Clinic

270-783-3573

615 7th Avenue

A community-oriented facility providing financially and culturally accessible health care for the diverse population in Warren and surrounding counties in South Central Kentucky. Bosnian and Spanish translators are available. Prescription assistance programs providing patients with free or reduced cost medications are available. Comprehensive medical and dental care including well child, lab and preventive care. Fee determined by patient's ability to pay.

Matthew 25 AIDS Services, Inc.

270-826-0200

Matthew 25 AIDS Services, Inc. supports, educates and treats those infected and affected with HIV/AIDS. In the Bowling Green area we provide care coordination services to HIV positive individuals. Additionally, we facilitate a support group and a food voucher program for those infected with HIV/AIDS. Community education opportunities are also available.

Narcotics Anonymous – 1-800-983-4131

Narcotics Anonymous is an international, community-based association of recovering drug addicts with more than 31,000 weekly meetings in over 100 countries worldwide.

National Alliance for the Mentally Ill

270-842-5687/270-535-2919

NAMI-Bowling Green -- A Grassroots Voice on Mental Illness -- Representing South Central Kentucky. Support for individuals with a mental illness and also a support group for family member and friends of those with a mental illness; utilize volunteers for community activities. The NAMI Family-to-Family Education Program is a free 12-week course for family caregivers of individuals with severe brain disorders (mental illnesses). The course is taught by trained family members. All instruction and course materials are free for class participants. This course will be taught in the coming months. We are now accepting family members who wish to sign up. Contact: Mrs. Marty Harrison 270.842.5687. (Formerly known as the Bowling Green Alliance for the Mentally Ill.) Information about bipolar illness can be found in BP Magazine. To subscribe please visit www.bphope.com or call 1-888-834-5537. Information about schizophrenia can be found in Schizophrenia Digest. To subscribe please visit www.schizophreniadigest.com or call 1-888-834-5537.

HOUSING AND SHELTERS

Abel Court Apartments

270-842-4114

1020 Old Barren River Road

Provides affordable housing for low-income families. Computer lab onsite for adults and children who reside in Abel Court Apartments. Community garden available to residents.

Barren River Area Safe Space

270-781-9334 / 270-843-1183 (CRISIS LINE)

Provides emergency shelter, food, clothing, counseling, case management, court advocacy, children's services, and referrals to other agencies for victims of domestic violence.

City of Bowling Green Housing & Community Development Department

270-393-3000

1017 College Street

The Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher program is a federally funded program administered within the City Limits of Bowling Green. The primary goal of Section 8 is rental assistance to persons of very low income, allowing them to rent existing market housing that is decent, safe, and sanitary. The program follows federal regulations as well as local policy. Individual subsidy is calculated using household income and the Fair Market Rent standards published by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

Community Action - Community Services Block Grant

270-783-4484

200 East 4th Street

Provides services to people in need regarding employment, education, housing, self-sufficiency, emergency services, community participation, and economic development so that living conditions can be improved; other programs managed through this office include the Supportive Housing Program, the Home Energy Assistance Program (HEAP), the CSBG Garden Program, scholarships, and the Emergency Food & Shelter Program.

Community Action - Weatherization/CARES270-782-3162*921 Beauty Avenue

Provides energy conservation improvements to the dwelling of low-income families residing in poorly insulated homes, which are designed to make homes safer and provide healthier living environments for families.

Habitat for Humanity270-843-6027*517 West 11th Street

An ecumenical Christian organization that partners with low-income families to build new homes. This is a hand-up program, not a hand-out program which allows the homeowner to be involved in the actual construction of the home, and in return, the family receives an interest-free mortgage for the home.

HANDS – Housing Assistance & Development Services, Inc.270-796-4176*1133 Adams Street

A community-based organization that creates affordable housing opportunities for low to moderate income families and works to revitalize neighborhoods. Programs include homeownership counseling, multi-family housing, and foreclosure and loss mitigation counseling.

Salvation Army270-843-3485*400 West Main Street

Primary role is to provide shelter and food to those in need, as well as make referrals to other community services; transportation vouchers, heating assistance when funds are available.

INTERNATIONAL ASSISTANCEInternational Center*270-781-8336*806 Kenton Street

Serves area foreign-born families through advocacy, facilitation of economic self-sufficiency, and empowerment of the communities, while supporting cultural integrity and family solidarity. Services include Refugee resettlement, social services, immigration assistance, interpreting/translating, English Language Training, citizenship education/assistance, computer skills training, job placement, advocacy, community orientation, passport/green card photos, elder and youth programs, clothes and food assistance. Recognized by the Board of Immigration Appeals.

LEGAL ASSISTANCE

Bowling Green Human Rights Commission, Inc.

270-782-7900

491 Double Springs Road

bghrc@aol.com

The primary mission of the Bowling Green Human Rights Commission, Inc. is to promote fair treatment and equal opportunity regardless of race, color, religion, national origin, age (over 40), sex or physical handicap. Services include a Minority job bank, fair housing ordinances, conflict/mediation and other projects.

Kentucky Legal Aid

1st Time Callers 866-452-9243/Others 270-782-1924

1700 Destiny Lane

The mission of Kentucky Legal Aid (KLA) is to assist and to enable low-income families, as well as the elderly, disabled and other vulnerable individuals in South Central and Western Kentucky, to resolve legal problems that are barriers to self-sufficiency, and to provide these individuals an opportunity for an improved quality of life. KLA utilizes attorneys and other staff to provide direct legal assistance; coordinates referrals to volunteer (pro bono) attorneys; and also addresses these client needs through programs for Benefits Counseling and Domestic Violence Assistance.

SENIOR SERVICES

Barren River Area Agency on Aging and Independent Living

177 Graham Avenue

1-800-395-7654 (out of state); 1-800-598-2381 (in state); 270-781-2381

This is an agency designated by the Commonwealth of Kentucky and the Department for Aging and Independent Living to identify the needs of the elderly and disabled population throughout the ten county Barren River District. The BRADD/AAIL is responsible for developing and administering in-home community-based services that assist the elderly and disabled population to maintain their independence as well as their quality of life within their own homes and communities. The BRADD service areas include Allen, Barren, Butler, Edmonson, Hart, Logan, Metcalfe, Monroe, Simpson, and Warren Counties. We offer a variety of services and contract with a variety of agencies to help serve the elderly and disabled populations.

Community Action - Foster Grandparent Program

270-782-3162

921 Beauty Avenue

Seniors age 55 and over assist special needs children in the community 20 to 25 hours per week. Foster Grandparents can be placed in public schools, Head Start programs, nonprofit child cares or a juvenile group home. In return for the volunteers' time, they receive a tax-free stipend, transportation costs, free meal and an annual physical exam.

Community Action - RSVP Homeland Security Program

270-782-3162

921 Beauty Avenue

Provides volunteer opportunities for seniors age 55 and older to serve the community in the areas of public health, public safety, disaster preparedness, and other community needs.

Community Action - Senior Centers

270-783-4484

200 East 4th Street

Provides activities and services designed to aid in the social and nutritional well-being of our senior citizens; services include meals, transportation, recreation, and health and nutrition. Located in 10 counties.

South Central Kentucky Council of the Blind (SCKCB)

270-782-9325

1564 Normal St.

Bowling Green, KY 42101

Email: sckcb@sckcb.org

Website: <http://www.sckcb.org>

Provides personal and family support for seniors who are losing or have lost their eyesight, including, independent living skills, advocacy, resources for all types of low-vision and blind related devices, products, and services, and a very liberal grant program for obtaining such products and services. We hold regular meetings featuring exhibitions and the latest information on the availability of new products and services, fun activities, and strong, positive support for seniors who are losing their eyesight or with low-vision, or seniors who are totally blind. We have a free report available upon request entitled: “Are You a Senior Struggling with Vision Loss?”

TRANSPORTATION

Community Action – GO BG Transit

270-782-3162

921 Beauty Avenue

Provides fixed-route bus service within the Bowling Green city limits. All buses are wheelchair accessible, and “GO, too” ADA Complementary Paratransit service is available to eligible persons with disabilities.