COMMUNICATION STUDIES MINOR (Ref. 480)

Department of Communication
Western Kentucky University
130 Ivan Wilson Center for Fine Arts, One Big Red Way, Bowling Green, KY 42101
(270) 745-3296     FAX (270) 745-3295

Effective: Spring 2001

The Department of Communication offers a broad spectrum of educational programs that prepare students for successful careers that require excellent communication skills. The department supports the concept that a broad-based liberal arts curriculum is essential for a well-rounded education.

The Communication Studies curriculum promotes the responsible use of communication as a tool for understanding in a variety of situations: one-to-one, small group, public, organizational, intercultural and mass mediated settings. This minor will be of benefit to students in a variety of professional fields such as Government, English, Political Science, History, Religious Studies, Psychology, Business, Teaching and many more.

CURRICULUM:

- The minor requires a minimum of 21 hours
- Either COMM 145 Fund. of Public Speaking or COMM 161 Business & Professional Speaking are required for Gen. Ed.

REQUIRED:
COMM 247 Voice and Diction
COMM 341 Theories of Communication
COMM 343 Speech Analysis/Speech Writing
COMM 345 Advanced Public Speaking

Three additional courses chosen in consultation with Advisor from any of the courses listed below