

THE MASTER OF ARTS IN EDUCATION ADULT EDUCATION

Welcome

Adult education usually refers to the adult status of students and the concept of a facilitator working with adult to help them learn material they feel is necessary to improve some part of their lives.

The Master of Arts in Education in Adult Education prepares graduates to develop and deliver programs that serve the specific educational needs of adult learners. This program follows the scientist/practitioner model of training. It prepares students to be successful in research and practical applications. The program is practice-oriented, offering a broad foundation for the professional who will render a wide variety of adult education services.

There are two concentrations in this program. The Adult Education - General Concentration provides graduates with a general background in the field of adult education and a focus on teaching adults in a variety of settings. The Adult Education - Community and Technical College Concentration focuses on preparing instructors who work with adult learners in community and technical colleges. Graduates from this program will have eighteen hours in a specific discipline as well as a foundation of adult and higher learning classes.

Admission Requirements

Applicants need to be admitted to the Graduate College. Applicants to the M.A.E. in Adult Education need a minimum GAP Score (GRE x GPA) of 2200 with an Analytical Writing score of 3.5 or greater. Students who have taken the GRE prior to October 1, 2002 will need to have a GAP Score (V + Q + A) x GPA) of 3500 or greater. Applicants who do not meet the minimum requirements are encouraged to take the GRE again to improve their scores. If, after the second attempt at the GRE, applicants whose GAP scores do not meet the minimum requirements are encouraged to submit an alternate admission portfolio.
