What we do—

Writers need feedback from readers to help refine their writing. The Writing Center can give you this feedback. Our tutors will talk with you about your writing to help you:

- brainstorm ideas
- clarify main points
- strengthen logic and support
- integrate sources and credit them properly
- smooth out organization
- fine-tune sentence style
- learn to proofread

Because we want to help you become a better writer, we won't edit or proofread your paper for you. We will help you learn to revise and edit so you will be better able to catch your own errors and improve your own content, organization, and style. Visit our website for a video tour to let you know what to expect: (www.wku.edu/writingcenter). Let us know if your teacher wants verification of your visit.

Now you can schedule your appointments online—

A link to the appointment scheduler is available on our website:

<http://www.wku.edu/writingcenter>. There you can also find instructions on using the scheduler and a video tutorial about the scheduler software. Call our Cherry Hall location (745-5719) during our operating hours if you have any questions or would prefer to schedule your appointment by phone.

Get response to your paper online —

If you can't get to our locations when we're open, have an online class, or have a paper that is six pages or longer, you can get feedback on your writing by email. The feedback can include an audio explanation of the tutor's suggestions as well as written comments, if you request it. We don't "fix" the paper for you but do let you know where improvement is needed and make suggestions about what to change/add, etc.

Find a form and instructions for submitting papers online on our website: www.wku.edu/writingcenter.
