CAMPUS WIDE INCIDENT REPORT FORM

Western Kentucky University (WKU) has an expectation that all employees will share information they receive about campus crime(s). This form is intended to track the University’s response(s) to campus incidents being reported, as well as to assess any danger each incident represents to the community at large. This report will contribute to the statistical data compiled and disbursed annually by the WKU Police Department (PD), and communicate timely warnings to the campus community for protection of individuals who may be at risk.

Instructions: Complete the information requested below. Report only one incident per form. If necessary, attach additional documentation to thoroughly complete each description. You are to return this form to your supervisor or WKUPD within 24 hours of becoming aware of any report.
