

2017 Qatar Foundation International VAMPY Arabic Course Scholarship Application Form

Deadline: May 15, 2017

The Qatar Foundation International has awarded a grant to The Center for Gifted Studies that will allow ten students to study Arabic at The Summer Program for Verbally and Mathematically Precocious Youth (VAMPY) at Western Kentucky University. Interested students should fill out this scholarship application as well as a VAMPY application.

Student Name _____

Address _____

City/State/Zip _____

Home Phone _____

School attending 2016-17 _____ District _____

Parent/Guardian Name(s) _____

Mother/Guardian Email _____ Phone _____

Father/Guardian Email _____ Phone _____

Did your child qualify for free or reduced lunch during the 2016/2017 school year? Y___ or N___

The following items MUST be included:

- I have included a letter explaining circumstances I want the Scholarship Committee to consider.
- I have included a 500-word essay from the student responding to the question “Why are you interested in enrolling in a three-week Arabic course at VAMPY?”
- I have included a copy of my most recent federal income tax form(s) (for both parents if they file separately).
- I have included a letter from an educator or counselor who knows my situation.
- I have included any other helpful information that would help the committee make an informed decision.
- I have submitted the VAMPY application with this scholarship application. A deposit is not required at this time.

Signature of Parent or Guardian

If you have any questions regarding the information provided, please contact The Center for Gifted Studies at 270.745.6323 or e-mail gifted@wku.edu. Please mail your application materials to:

The Center for Gifted Studies
1906 College Heights Blvd. #71031
Bowling Green, KY 42101-1031