

SPIRIT MASTERS

WESTERN KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY

Spirit Masters serve as the official student ambassadors, tour guides, and student recruiting agents for Western Kentucky University. The purpose of this organization is to promote service, to enhance pride, and to communicate an increased understanding of Western Kentucky University. This organization accomplishes its purpose with a sense of dedication and responsibility to the students, faculty, administration, alumni, and community.

The members are selected annually during the spring semester, and the number is determined by the interview panel. The group is composed of not less than twenty-four members and not more than thirty-two. All Spirit Masters must be students in good standing with the University.

In the spring selection, a Spirit Master candidate must be an incoming sophomore, junior, or senior and have attended WKU at least one semester with two or more semesters remaining before graduation. All Spirit Masters must be able and willing to represent Western Kentucky University in a positive manner and adhere to the constitution of the organization.
