

IDENTIFICATION CARD

All full-time and part-time students are issued a personal identification card (The Big Red Card). The ID card shows the student's photo and name. The ID card entitles the full-time student to admission to campus athletic events, use of recreational facilities in the University Center at student rates, admission to the Preston Center, checkout privileges at the library, and other general University services. It can also be used as a debit card at WKU Dining Services facilities, the University Bookstore, selected vending machines, laundry machines, selected copiers, as well as other locations on campus, and all University meal plans are accessed via the ID card. The ID card for part-time students provides similar privileges as received by full-time students detailed above with the exception of admission to campus athletic events and some recreational activities unless an additional fee is paid.

The ID card is not transferable and is used for the duration of one's college career at Western. Students are expected to carry their ID card at all times and to present the card upon request by University officials. The Big Red Card must be surrendered upon demand if revoked by a University official. The University is not responsible for any loss or expenses resulting from the loss, theft, or misuse of this card. If a card is lost or stolen, application for replacement (a $20 replacement fee) should be made at the ID Center located on the ground floor of the Downing University Center. Report loss to the Center as soon as possible to prevent unauthorized access to your records or funds. The ID card is the property of Western Kentucky University.

Last updated: June 4, 2003