

Recommended by Duncan Hines, an exhibit celebrating the life of a famous Kentuckian in Duncan Hines. At the Kentucky Library & Museum on the campus of WKU, learn of his career in writing, dining, and entertaining as well as his transition into a name-brand icon in package food. Learn unique facts about his life, follow his travels throughout the U.S., and take a look inside his very own kitchen.

The Kentucky Library & Museum is open Monday through Saturday 9 to 4 and Sunday 1 to 4.

For more information call 745-4502.