The Dean’s Council of Students is the ambassadorial group of Potter College of Arts & Letters at Western Kentucky University. DCS is comprised of 25-30 student volunteers majoring in one or more academic disciplines within Potter College. Students involved with the group are competitively selected annually and serve throughout the academic year. DCS members assist the College departments and faculty at open houses, college fairs, and Academic Transitions Programs. Additionally, members of DCS provide campus and facilities tours through the Day in the Life of a Potter College Topper program, correspond with prospective majors, organize and participate in College events like Fall Festival, and serve as a student perspective focus-group.

If you would like to learn more about the Potter College Dean’s Council of Students, please contact Jennifer Markin, DCS advisor, at jennifer.markin@wku.edu.

Applications for membership are due by April 5, 2013
