

Crime Prevention Tips

- There is safety in numbers. Try to walk with a group or a buddy when out at night.
- If you do not have a friend available to walk with call the WKUPD Dusk to Dawn Escort Services at 270-745-3333.
- ALWAYS lock your residence hall doors.
- Take a self-defense class. WKU Police Department offers a FREE course in R.A.D. (Rape Aggression Defense).
- Do not leave your personal belongings unattended while studying in a public place.
- Log your model and serial numbers of all valuables and keep information in a safe place.
- Keep valuables in your vehicle out of plain view.
- Report lost or stolen room keys immediately to the front desk of your hall.
- Never leave a message on your door letting others know you are away from your room.
- Do not carry large amounts of cash.
- Text books are the same as cash. Do not leave them unsecured.
- Do not invite people you have just met up to your room.
- WKUPD offers numerous Crime Prevention programs. Contact Officer Brandon Humphries for more information by calling 270-745-2548 or emailing brandon.humphries@wku.edu.
