Whereas the Provost’s Bi-term proposal has the potential to impact significantly faculty work life, academic quality, and WKU’s educational mission;

Whereas Provost Emslie has given public assurance that this plan would need widespread faculty support before it could be implemented;

Whereas Provost Emslie has also assured the university community that this proposal has been sent forward for discussion purposes;

The University Senate of WKU resolves that:

Any Bi-term plan must be vetted by the appropriate senate committees and receive the approval of both the University Senate and WKU’s Board of Regents before it is implemented.
