

Study English Law & History in London

July 10 - August 11, 2003

This survey course is designed to introduce students to English legal history from the medieval to the modern era.

Program activities include:

Classroom lectures and discussions

Visiting lecturers

Excursions to Oxford and Cambridge

Attend trials at Royal Courts of Justice and Old Bailey

Program cost (USD $3,595) includes:

Roundtrip airfare US ↔ London

Tuition

Housing and Meals

BritRail/Underground passes

Excursions

Registration Information:

Students can earn 3 credits. Credits can be earned towards major/minor requirements.

Financial Aid and Scholarship are available. Additional independent study credits can be earned.

For more information, contact:

Dr. Patricia Minter

Dept. of History

Email: patricia.minter@wku.edu

Tel: 270-745-5098