

MINOR IN FILM STUDIES

Students in the Film Studies Minor will experience interdisciplinary classes that emphasize a diverse, global approach to the study of cinematic storytelling. The minor features courses in film history, film aesthetics, world cinema, film genres, documentary, and screenwriting.

CAREER BENEFITS

- Develop skills in visual literacy and data storytelling
- Explore Hollywood, international, and independent cinema
- Learn from practicing critics, screenwriters, and filmmakers

THE FILM MINOR WORKS WITH A VARIETY OF MAJORS

FILM MINOR

- + English
- + Theatre
- + Broadcasting
- + Public Relations
- + Marketing
- + And many more!

For more information about the opportunities of the Film Studies Minor, contact:
Dr. Dawn Hall
dawn.hall@wku.edu