

Online resources for Voice Audition

If you are currently studying voice, your teacher will likely have good suggestions for your two audition selections. If you need some guidance, here are some online suggestions:

Twenty-Four Italian Songs and Arias: Typically, a must for any voice study. These are available for download.

Medium Low (Mezzo soprano, Alto, Baritone, Bass)

<https://s9.imslp.org/files/imglnks/usimg/7/7d/IMSLP548299-PMLP885124-twentyfouritalia00newy.pdf>

Medium High (Soprano, Tenor)

<https://s9.imslp.org/files/imglnks/usimg/f/ff/IMSLP607766-PMLP885124-24.pdf>

Accompaniment for the 24 Italian Songs and Arias on youtube.com

The Free Pianist has all the 24 Italian Songs and Arias on youtube. He is very dependable.

Ex. Caro mio ben

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1ZFAc_nOMsw

Free Pianist (Type in the title of your piece.)

Website that has downloadable songs for purchase:

Classical Voice Starter Pack – ANY of these songs would be nicely appropriate for a college audition regardless of voice part. Songs are transposable so one can purchase the appropriate key for one's voice. The language you choose should be in your comfort zone/ability. This collection offers a variety of songs/composers from standard repertoire for high school and underclassman collegiate voice study. It has songs in various languages (English, Italian, German, French, Latin). One can purchase the entire collection or single pieces for download. Songs are transposable so one can purchase the appropriate key for one's voice. The range is displayed for each song. (see under More info on web page) Full pack $27.99. Individual song $5.79.

<https://www.musicnotes.com/sheetmusic/col.asp?ppn=CL0008996#songTab>

Accompaniment: Type in the title of the piece on youtube and you will find multiple accompaniments in various keys.

Ex. Silent Noon by Ralph Vaughan Williams

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Bl9AiCCdfbU>

Mr. Walton, pianist, does a very fine job with performance style and tradition.