

Other Notable Individual Summer Experiences

- Patton Allen ('18) of Morgantown will take courses for the UK-WKU Medical School Early Assurance Program and continue work on a current research project.
- Ethan Brown ('18) of Paducah will work as a Camp Counselor for West Kentucky 4H Camp.
- Sereniti Coulter ('19) of Bardstown will attend the QuestBridge Conference at Rice University in Houston, TX.
- Caleb Curry ('18) of Louisa will work as a Conservation Camp Counselor at Camp Robert Webb.
- Devin Davis ('19) of Georgetown will attend the Duke Energy Academy at Purdue University.
- Benjamin Davison ('19) of Morehead has a Data Analysis Internship at Fehr and Peers in Los Angeles, CA.
- Koushik Devarakonda ('19) of Union will participate in the Economics for Leaders program at the University of Berkeley and continue research in the WKU Department of Physics.
- Alicia Edds ('18) of La Grange will work as a camp counselor at the Lions Camp for Deaf and Hard of Hearing Youth in Lebanon, KY, and she will also participate in the Elite Space Academy at NASA Space Camp in Huntsville, Alabama.
- Jeraan Fernando ('18) of Union will shadow an anesthesiologist/radiologist in Cincinnati, OH.
- Grayson Fuller ('18) of Versailles will conduct research at the University of Kentucky College of Medicine's Biochemistry Department with Dr. Jessica Blackburn.
- Ivy Irihamye ('19) of Lexington will volunteer at the UK Veterinary Diagnostics Laboratory and participate in the Purdue Agribusiness Summer Academy.
- Wren Jenkins ('18) of Ashland will participate in a service trip to Jacksonville, FL.
- Benjamin Kash ('18) of Bowling Green will continue research with Dr. Rui Zhang in the WKU Department of Chemistry.
- Emma Keller ('19) of Hebron will be a Summer Camp Counselor at the RC Durr YMCA Camp.
- Samuel Kessler ('18) of Campbellsville will perform legislative and lobbying work for the Kentucky Senate/H.O.R. committee on energy and environment, drafting a bill for Congressman James Comer.
- Emma Lamb ('19) of Owensboro will shadow and volunteer at the Owensboro Health Regional Hospital.
- Chloe Lindsey ('18) of Leitchfield will shadow a pharmacist at the Twin Lakes Regional Medical Center.
- Emma Moore ('18) of Liberty will intern with the ECU Upward Bound in Richmond.
- Richard Pike ('19) of Hodgenville will work with the EMC² summer camp with Dr. Ellert at the University of Southern Indiana.
- Emma Poole ('19) of Central City will shadow Susan Tierney, Circuit Court Clerk of Daviess County.
- Natalie Reed ('18) of Fort Thomas will work for the information procurement software company Acquire.

- Wyatt Ringo ('19) of Louisville will present his WKU faculty-mentored research at the 10th Annual Howard Hughes Medical Institute's 10th Annual Science Education Alliance (SEA)-PHAGES Symposium at the HHMI Janelia Farm campus in Ashburn, VA.
- Elizabeth Roebker ('19) of Erlanger will participate in the Lindner Summer Institute at the University of Cincinnati's Lindner School of Business.
- Robert Sego ('19) of Glendale will participate in cyber-security research with Kyle Moss at WKU's Engineering-Manufacturing-Commercialization Center.
- Monda Singai ('19) of Richmond will participate in the MIT Online Science, Technology, and Engineering Community and also volunteer at the Hugh O'Brien Youth Leadership Conference.
- Anna Strunjas ('19) of Bowling Green will work as a camp counselor at YMCA Camp Ernst.