Change Catalog Term/Year Request	Extend Expired Catalog Term/Year
Instructions: Catalog Term / Year is based on the first term of enrollment as a degree-seeking student. Enter your current catalog term / year on the appropriate line. Then, enter the catalog term to which you want to change. Changes must be made to a more recent term. Changing a catalog term affects major, minor, concentration, and general education requirements. Therefore, you should consult with an advisor before making a change. Student's Current Catalog Term / Year: _____ Requested Catalog Term / Year: _____ To make a change to the general education program, please complete the box below.	Instructions: Students may follow the program requirements for a Catalog Term / Year for seven years. Students with an expired catalog term must contact their department head and dean's office to request a catalog term/year extension. The department head and dean's office will determine the length of the extension. Students with an expired catalog term or who have exhausted the time limit for the extension will have a hold placed on their registration. Students eligible for an extension should have a catalog term of Fall 2005 or later, since the policy was generated to coincide with automated degree audit. Students with an expired degree program on file should consult with their advisor and Dean's Office to determine if an extension is feasible. Student's Current Catalog Term / Year: _____ Extend Catalog Term / Year Until: _____

University Colonnade / General Education Requirements
In consultation with the student, advisors may select which general education programs a returning student should follow to complete degree requirements in a timely manner.

Select one option:

Maintain "old" general education requirements. (Returning students who began their studies at WKU under the old General Education program will be allowed to finish their degree under the old General Education program).

Follow Colonnade Program. (Available for all undergraduate students.)
