

Deaf Blind Workshop
February 24, 2018
9:00am-4:00pm
Gary Ransdell Hall 2005

This interactive, hands-on workshop is an introduction to better understanding the Deaf/Blind community and how to work with this group of individuals.

Marilyn Trader is the Southeastern Regional Representative of the Helen Keller National Center in Raleigh, North Carolina. She holds a B.S. in psychology and sociology from Illinois State University and master's degree in social work from Gallaudet University. Marilyn is passionate about educating and providing Deaf/Blind consumers with the tools they need to break barriers, escape isolation, and for some, to gain employment. She is also a certified interpreter.

The cost is $10 for the all day workshop, lunch and snacks.
