Dr. Jerry Daday, associate professor of Sociology, aims to inform the WKU community about the atrocities that occurred in Bosnia and Herzegovina in the 1990s. As part of the lecture “In the Land of Blood and Honey” (directed by Angelina Jolie, 2011) will also be shown, followed by a short discussion.

Lecture and movie are open to all students, faculty, and staff of WKU.

Join us for a lecture and a movie.

Tuesday, September 25th
Grise Hall 138
4:30pm

Refreshments will be provided.

For more International Reach Week 2012 events please visit www.wku.edu/oip/irw.php