

WESTERN KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY
DEPARTMENT OF BIOLOGY
HUMAN A&P AND MICROBIOLOGY INSTRUCTOR

Western Kentucky University (WKU) aspires to be the University of choice for faculty and staff who are dedicated to helping advance academic excellence. True to its spirit, WKU offers an inviting, nurturing, and challenging work environment, which is responsive to the needs of a diverse and ambitious learning community. WKU's main campus is located on a hill overlooking the city of Bowling Green (population est. 60,000), and is acclaimed as one of the most beautiful in the nation. In addition, WKU serves the communities of Elizabethtown/Fort Knox, Glasgow and Owensboro through its regional campuses. We invite you to consider WKU as a place where your academic and professional dreams can be realized.

The Department of Biology (<http://www.wku.edu/biology/>) at WKU invites applications for a position at the non-tenure track rank of Instructor (General Biology, Human Anatomy & Physiology, and Microbiology) to start August, 2015.

The successful candidate will have a Ph.D. or equivalent, or a MS with at least five years of experience, in a field of biological sciences with the background and preparation to teach General Biology & Laboratory, Human Anatomy & Physiology with Laboratory and General Microbiology & Laboratory. Some courses may be taught completely or partially online and additional teaching assignments may be made according to the candidate's expertise. Teaching will occur at our main, south, and satellite campuses. The successful candidate will have a track-record of excellence in teaching these and/or related courses, the ability to use Blackboard or the equivalent, familiarity with e-texts and related online learning assistance platforms, and a willingness to participate in departmental and university service.

Review of applications begins January 12, 2015. Interested applicants should submit a letter of interest, a current CV, a statement of teaching philosophy, and the names and contact information for three references to: instructor.biology@wku.edu.
