CAD: Dean Evans reported on the March 19, 2014 meeting.
- WKU bookstore relations were discussed. Faculty need to send their textbook requests before the book adoption deadline each semester. If the text usage for a particular class is unknown, faculty needs to convey that information to the bookstore.
- Form 2 procedures were discussed. Search committees may continue to add applicants to the interview pool. Discussion.
- Minority faculty hires was discussed.
- Emergency procedure guides will be posted in all classrooms.
- Outstanding 2013 evaluations were discussed.
- The Field Trip Form will be revisited at a later meeting.
- The topic of budget was discussed. Dean Evans provided a handout to the Admin. Council related to recurring budget allocations. Discussion.

Strategic Planning: A meeting will be scheduled once the committee has been formed.

Graduate Assistantships: no discussion

Promotion and Tenure: This topic was briefly discussed.

Part-time Faculty Evaluations: Dean Evans reminded the Council to continue with completion of this task.

CEBS Student Leadership & Success Committee: A list of recommendations was provided to the Council. This item will be further discussed at the April 3 Admin. Council meeting. Dale Brown and Sharon Hunter will be in attendance.

Dinner with 10 Toppers: Dean Evans asked the Council members to identify 8 CEBS students who might be struggling academically; however possess the potential to succeed. The named students will be invited to attend a CEBS sponsored dinner for them and two alumni. Student names may be submitted to Tammy no later than Friday, March 28.

Prior Learning Assessment Committee: Dr. Jim Berger will serve as the CEBS representative to the PLA Committee.

Book Sharing Event: To help faculty rid themselves of unwanted professional books, Dr. Barbara Burch suggested we hold an annual book sharing event for CEBS students. Administrative Council members liked the idea and proposed that the event be held in conjunction with another CEBS student event. Tammy will follow-up with Dr. Burch.
