MATH 475
Selected Studies in Mathematics

Prerequisites: Permission of Instructor
Credit: 1-3 hours

Course Description: A consideration of special topics to acquaint the advanced undergraduate student with significant problems and development of current interest in mathematics. Topic may vary each semester offered.

Because this course is offered periodically to reflect special interests of students, no syllabus has been included. Requirements differ depending on the topic.