Course Description  This course is designed to provide pedagogical principles related to teaching the skills, tactics, and strategies of Net/wall and “Target” game forms.

Objectives
Demonstrate an understanding of the basic terminology.
Demonstrate the knowledge of rules, strategy, and procedures for “target” and net/wall games.

Demonstrate the physical skills necessary to play, demonstrate, and instruct these games.

Demonstrate an understanding of how to develop and maintain a positive learning experience.

Demonstrate competence in writing a basic lesson plan.

Objective Assessments
Written Exams- This will include terminology, rules, strategy, and tactics.
Physical skills assessments-This will include demonstration of the basic skills necessary to perform and instruct the various games including teaching cues.
Writing lesson plans that reflect the activity to be taught.
A = 90-100
B = 80-89
C = 70-79
D = 60-69
F = <=60

Class policies

Attendance is considered extremely important and will be monitored. Students are expected to attend each class session. Tardiness and early departures are unacceptable.

Participation is considered extremely important. This includes class discussion and the lab experiences. Failure to attend class on the lab experiences is not recommended.

All assignments are due on time. Late assignments will not be accepted. All assignments must be turned in on Blackboard.

It is the responsibility of the student to arrange for make-up work or test with proper documentation. Students will not be allowed to make up any work without a legitimate and verifiable written excuse.

Activity deemed disruptive at the discretion of the instructor will cause dismissal from the course.

Use of cellular phones and other electronic devices is unacceptable. Students are expected to abide by the Academic Requirements and Regulations as outlined in the Student Handbook (http://www.wku.edu/handbook/)

Attendance

Registration in a course obligates the student to be regular and punctual in class attendance. Students should make certain that their names are on the class roll. If an error has been made in registration, it is the student’s to see that the error is corrected in the Office of the Registrar. It is the individual instructor’s responsibility to inform students, in writing on the first day the class meets of the guidelines for implementing the instructor’s attendance policy. Students who cease attending class are expected to report to the Office of the Registrar to initiate withdrawal procedures.

WKU DISABILITY STATEMENT
“Students with disabilities who require accommodations (academic adjustments and/or auxiliary aids or services) for this course should contact the Office for Student Disability Services, Room 101, Garrett Conference Center, (270) 745-5004. The OFSDS telephone number is (270) 745-5004V/TDD.”

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

“Western Kentucky University’s policy on plagiarism and other forms of academic dishonesty is one of “zero tolerance.” As a student at Western Kentucky University, the student is expected to demonstrate academic integrity, as outlined in the University Statement on Student Rights and Responsibilities in all coursework. Violations of this code of conduct include but are not limited to cheating (by giving or receiving unauthorized information before or during an exam or assignment), dishonesty (including misrepresentation and/or lying) and plagiarism. Sanctions, outlined more fully in the WKU Catalog, are binding to all students enrolled in the university and include but are not limited to the faculty member assigning a failing grade for the course without possibility of withdrawal; the faculty member may also present the case to the Office of the Dean of Student Life for disciplinary sanctions.”

The instructor reserves the right to make changes to the course syllabus at any time throughout the semester. All students will be verbally notified of changes to the course syllabus in class. It is the student’s responsibility to attend class and to keep informed of changes to the syllabus.