Social Work Faculty Attend CSWE Annual Program Meeting

Dr. Saundra Starks

Portland Oregon was the location of the 2010 Council on Social Work Education's (CSWE) Annual Program Meeting (APM) whose theme was Promoting Sustainability in Social Work. The focus this year was on holding a "greener" annual gathering for social work educators and students as well as preparing them to better serve military personnel and their families. Western Kentucky University was well represented by the seven faculty members from the Department of Social Work who attended and presented papers. From October 14 -17, Drs. Cappiccie, DeRosiers, Gabbard, Owens, Starks, Sullivan and Villereal were actively networking, recruiting, facilitating and enjoying the camaraderie and opportunities to collaborate with fellow social work educators from across the globe.

The following papers were presented:

Cappiccie, A. & Desrosiers, D. (2010, October). Using adobe acrobat connect pro in the social work classroom.

Call, C., Owens, L.W. & Vincent, N.J. (2010, October). Social work leadership in the academy: Sustaining collaboration and mission.

Starks, S.H. & Davison, D. (2010, October). Black Feminist Leadership: Voices from the "Other".

Sullivan, D. & Collins-Camargo, C. E. (2010, October). Creating sustainable change in out-of-home care through peer consultation and collaboration.

In addition, several WKU faculty members were busy with board and committee assignments and responsibilities. Dr. Jay Gabbard is Associate Secretary General for membership on the board of the International Consortium for Social Development (ICSD) and staffed the exhibit hall booth for this group. Dr. Gary Villereal focused on the sessions on Social Work and the military. Dr. Saundra Starks, who serves on the Nominating Committee for CSWE, the Foundation Board for the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB), and the CSWE Council on the Role and Status of Women, attended meetings related to the work of the committees, assisted in staffing the annual Women's Networking Breakfast, and conducted business with the ASWB Foundation for Research on Regulation. As noted in the pictures, networking was also shared with a couple of Avatars present.

Public Health Student Receives Vivian Drenckhahn Scholarship Award

Pragati Gole, a graduate student in the Department of Public Health, was awarded the Society for Public Health Education (SOPHE) 2010 Vivian Drenckhahn Scholarship Award. Gole, who is pursuing a Master of Public Health degree from WKU, will receive the award at SOPHE's 61st Anniversary Annual Meeting Awards Banquet on November 6, 2010 at the Denver Art Museum. This award is given to students who have demonstrated a commitment to addressing the public's health through a career in health education and academic excellence. Pragati was also required to include a written statement addressing issues impacting the future of health education and her perceived roles or desires for contributing to the resolution of these issues.
