The University
Western Kentucky University aspires to be the University of choice for faculty and staff who are dedicated to helping advance academic excellence. True to its spirit, WKU offers an inviting, nurturing, and challenging work environment, which is responsive to the needs of a diverse and ambitious learning community. WKU's main campus is located on a hill overlooking the city of Bowling Green (population est. 60,000), and is acclaimed as one of the most beautiful in the nation. In addition, WKU serves the communities of Elizabethtown/Fort Knox, Glasgow and Owensboro through its regional campuses. We invite you to consider WKU as a place where your academic and professional dreams can be realized.

Position
The School of Kinesiology, Recreation & Sport (KRS) invites applications for a nine-month, non-tenure-track appointment as an Instructor in the Physical Education program beginning Fall semester 2015. This is a revenue-dependent position renewable for up to three years.

The School
The School of KRS is housed within the College of Health and Human Services and offers undergraduate programs in physical education-teacher education, sport management, exercise science, and recreation administration. Graduate programs in kinesiology and recreation & sport administration, as well as a variety of minors are also offered. Please see the following website for additional information about the School of KRS: http://www.wku.edu/krs/index.php

Responsibilities
Teaching responsibilities may include, but not limited to:
- Methods of teaching various content areas within physical education
- Supervision of undergraduate physical education majors in field experiences
- Supervision of student teachers

Minimum Qualifications
The candidate should have:
- Master’s degree (minimum) in physical education or a related field with a minimum of 2 years demonstrated excellence in teaching at the college level
- Excellent communication skills and ability to collaborate with colleagues
- Teaching experience in the PreK-12 school setting (3 year minimum)
- Knowledge of current regulations pertaining to teacher education and teacher certification in Kentucky
Application Procedure
Send letter of application, current curriculum vitae, unofficial transcript(s), a separate statement of teaching experience and interests, and contact information for three references who can speak to your teaching experience and skill. Application materials should be sent as an email attachment to latishah.britt@wku.edu in the form of a single PDF file of less than 5 MB to the attention of:

Dr. Elizabeth Pyle
Search Committee Chair, Physical Education
School of Kinesiology, Recreation & Sport
1906 College Heights Blvd. #11089
Bowling Green, KY 42101-1089

Deadline
Review of applications will begin March 17, 2015, and will continue until the position is filled.

Kentucky state law requires all public institutions of postsecondary education to conduct pre-employment criminal background checks to determine suitability for employment.

Western Kentucky University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, age, religion, veteran status, or marital status in admission to career and technical education programs and/or activities, or employment practices in accordance with Title VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Revised 1992, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990.

Persons with disabilities, who need reasonable accommodations to participate in the application and/or selection process, should notify The Office of Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action/University ADA Services at (270) 745-5121, a minimum of five working days in advance.