

Fall 2020

What's Next Speaker Series

A speaker series that explores career options for English graduate students beyond the field of education and gives practical advice for a successful job search

“What's Next for Your Career: The Post-Graduation Job Search Starts Now”

Anna Meany

October 26, 6:00-7:00

Register through Zoom here.

Anna Meany graduated from the University of Louisville with a Bachelor of Arts in English and Art History. She began working with WKU in October 2018 as a Career Coach and continues to help students look for guidance and direction during their college career.

“What's Next for Your Career: English Beyond the Academy”

Callie Compton

November 11, 6:30-7:30

Register through Zoom here.

Callie Compton graduated from WKU with a Master of Arts in Rhetoric and Composition in 2016. She now works as a Senior Technical Editor with Synchronix, a Certara company. She edits, publishes, and manages the official documents pharmaceutical companies send to regulatory bodies like the FDA to get new drugs and devices approved.

