College of the Month — Potter College of Arts and Letters

Each month I will highlight one of WKU's colleges and some of the majors it has to offer.

Potter College of Arts and Letters

The primary area of scholarly concern in Potter College of Arts & Letters (PCAL) is the study of men and women—their past, present, and future, as well as their aesthetic expression, meta-physical concerns, and social interaction. PCAL prepares students to enter a wide range of careers and programs of advanced study.

A diverse and distinguished faculty provides excellent instruction in several disciplines in the humanities, social sciences, and visual and performing arts. The twelve departments combined offer 27 majors and 32 minors, including five interdisciplinary programs.

At WKU, PCAL provides the "big picture" approach to learning. It's all about developing students' intellectual capacities and practical skills. PCAL provides broad knowledge to prepare you for a variety of jobs and a lifetime of learning and growth. These programs prepare you to succeed in a workforce that requires bright team players and global thinkers who are inquisitive, analytical and creative with excellent communication, interpersonal and leadership skills.

The classes provide students personal attention and plenty of opportunities to engage in activities and projects with real-world applications. You'll find a diverse and world class faculty and caring staff who take a personal interest in helping students achieve their goals. Professors are more than teachers, they become lifelong mentors. Excellence in teaching and learning is their highest priority

In addition, 65% of study abroad opportunities and a majority of Honors College sections are offered through PCAL.

Consider PCAL when choosing a major!
