To Do List:

- Study abroad experiences
- Improving leadership skills
- Declaring a major or connecting with an advisor
- Attending the Majors and Minors Fair
- Learning about majors and minors
- Participating in the Study Abroad Fair
- Enjoying a meal with a roommate
- Cheerleading for the WKU Tops
- Exploring Bowling Green
- Enjoying Labor Day Weekend

If you have trouble viewing this newsletter, click here to view it in a separate window.

Follow @WKUExploratory on Twitter and Instagram for fun news and quick updates.

Organizational Leadership is an interdisciplinary degree that requires 48 hours. No minor or second major is required. The major in organizational leadership provides an introduction to leadership, organizational development, and management while broadening your skills. Whether running your own business or working with large groups in a multinational company, you can use these principles.

History requires a minimum of 33 semester hours and leads to a bachelor of arts degree. A minor or a second major is required. The major in history provides a record of remarkable achievements, astonishing in their variety. The past, however, also gives evidence of the fragility of those achievements. A history major will help you explore and understand issues facing people in the past, present, and future.

Biochemistry requires a minimum of 60 semester hours and leads to a bachelor of science degree. No minor or second major is required. The major in biochemistry provides an introduction to & research projects; education abroad program offers opportunities to enhance course work; co-curricular programs; visiting scholars and specialists; new institutional partnerships; international year of... program. The International Year Of... program is intended to foster global understanding and appreciation among students, faculty, and staff.

Accounting is a record of remarkable achievements, astonishing in their variety. The past, however, also gives evidence of the fragility of those achievements. A history major will help you explore and understand issues facing people in the past, present, and future.

If you have trouble viewing this newsletter, click here to view it in a separate window.

Follow @WKUExploratory on Twitter and Instagram for fun news and quick updates.

Organizational Leadership is an interdisciplinary degree that requires 48 hours. No minor or second major is required. The major in organizational leadership provides an introduction to leadership, organizational development, and management while broadening your skills. Whether running your own business or working with large groups in a multinational company, you can use these principles.

History requires a minimum of 33 semester hours and leads to a bachelor of arts degree. A minor or a second major is required. The major in history provides a record of remarkable achievements, astonishing in their variety. The past, however, also gives evidence of the fragility of those achievements. A history major will help you explore and understand issues facing people in the past, present, and future.

Biochemistry requires a minimum of 60 semester hours and leads to a bachelor of science degree. No minor or second major is required. The major in biochemistry provides an introduction to & research projects; education abroad program offers opportunities to enhance course work; co-curricular programs; visiting scholars and specialists; new institutional partnerships; international year of... program. The International Year Of... program is intended to foster global understanding and appreciation among students, faculty, and staff.

Accounting is a record of remarkable achievements, astonishing in their variety. The past, however, also gives evidence of the fragility of those achievements. A history major will help you explore and understand issues facing people in the past, present, and future.