

WKU is proud to announce a new partnership with

WKU has recently started a partnership with Guy Brown Promotional in providing promotional marketing products and programs. In order to better service WKU, Guy Brown has created a custom web store that is exclusive to WKU employees and faculty. It houses a variety of promotional merchandise including pens, mugs, bags, awards, spirit products and much more.

Welcome Note from Guy Brown:

Thank you for choosing Guy Brown Promotional. We are excited to have the opportunity to help WKU promote its brand identity by providing the products and services that best reflect WKU's values and standards. Your program is an investment in your brand and we will work to provide the best solutions to suit your needs.

Our experience and resources will support WKU by providing you with the most innovative and complete promotional programs. Look to us for branded merchandise, corporate identity programs, incentives and rewards, recognition and service awards, and specialty marketing products. Your custom catalog is available online 24/7 at www.co-store.com/wku. Please visit this site to request an account. All accounts will be active July 1st, 2010.

For questions & creative development, contact:

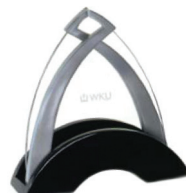

Natasha Imbrogno - Sales Coordinator

630.773.1456

Natasha.Imbrogno@guybrown.com

Custom WKU web store:

www.co-store.com/wku

Account request tutorial and user guide to follow