

Advanced Learning Differentiation Cohort

Three-Part Virtual Professional Learning Series

Grades 4-8 | $125 for the series | Book included with registration

Virtual | 4:00 - 5:30 PM CT | September 17 | October 15 | November 12

A three-session virtual professional learning series for educators of advanced learners. Gain actionable strategies, design challenging instruction, collaborate with peers, and earn PD hours. Strategies for Differentiating Instruction: Best Practices for the Classroom (4th Edition) by Julia Link Roberts and Tracy Ford Inman included.

Facilitators

Julia Link Roberts, Ed.D.

Mahurin Professor of Gifted Studies;
Executive Director, The Center for Gifted
Studies & The Gatton Academy

Tyler Clark, Ed.D.

Assistant Director of Operations, The Center for Gifted Studies

Madison Staton, M.S.

Assistant Director of Programming, Center for Gifted
Studies

Tiering Instruction

Match learning to readiness
while maintaining high expectations.

Vibrant Learning

Create engaging experiences that encourage curiosity,
choice, and deeper exploration.

Products That Challenge

Create authentic products requiring analysis and creativity.

Email madison.staton@wku.edu to learn about discounted school rate for 4+ teachers.

Visit www.wku.edu/gifted/differentiation or scan the QR to learn more and register.

