WKU at a Glance

Western Kentucky University is part of the public Kentucky postsecondary education system, which includes eight four-year institutions and a community and technical college system comprised of 16 institutions. By statute, Western Kentucky University is governed by its Board of Regents. The Kentucky Council on Postsecondary Education (CPE) serves as a coordinating board for the system.

WKU's undergraduate division provides four-year programs leading to the Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Fine Arts, Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies, Bachelor of Music, Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Science in Nursing, and Bachelor of Social Work degrees. Ninety-nine academic majors that lead to the baccalaureate degree and 70 academic minors are available. A number of professional and pre-professional advising tracks provide additional options.

Four associate degree programs are also offered leading to the Associate of Arts, Associate of Interdisciplinary Studies, Associate of Science, and Associate of Science in Nursing degrees. Fifty undergraduate certificate programs are also offered.

The Graduate School at WKU offers graduate education in 91 degree and certificate programs. The university confers the Master of Accountancy, Master of Arts, Master of Arts in Education, Master of Arts in Teaching, Master of Business Administration, Master of Fine Arts, Master of Health Administration, Master of Music, Master of Public Administration, Master of Public Health, Master of Science, Master of Science in Nursing, Master of Social Work, Specialist in Education, Doctor of Education, Doctor of Nursing Practice, Doctor of Physical Therapy, and Doctor of Psychology. WKU also offers non-degree Rank I and II and certification-only teacher education programs.

Mission

Western Kentucky University (WKU) prepares students of all backgrounds to be productive, engaged, and socially responsible citizen-leaders of a global society. The University provides research, service and lifelong learning opportunities for its students, faculty, and other constituents. WKU enriches the quality of life for those within its reach.

WKU's GREEN HIGHLIGHTS

Western Kentucky University has been profiled in Princeton Review's Guide to Green Colleges fifteen years in a row.

WKU is an Association for the Advancement of Sustainability in Higher Education (AASHE) Silver Rated University.

The WKU Office of Sustainability offers a Student Ambassador Program through which students serve as sustainability educators to promote environmentally-responsible behavior at WKU. The program provides students with a $500 scholarship.

Three WKU Restaurant Group facilities have earned a Green Restaurant Certification, utilizing sustainable practices to reduce food waste, reduce water usage, and source from local farmers.

Statement of Purpose

WKU is engaged in internationally acclaimed, student-and-learning-centered academic programs. The WKU experience occurs on several unique campus environments and through an overarching spirit which attracts an intellectually exciting and diverse family of the nation's best students. WKU provides students of all backgrounds with rigorous academic programs in education, the liberal arts and sciences, the health sciences, and business, with emphasis at the baccalaureate and masters levels, complemented by relevant associate and doctoral level programs. The University places a premium on student learning; it is committed to ensuring value in a holistic learning experience through high standards for student achievement and conduct, a strong faculty, technological innovation, personalized attention, broad access, and public accountability for actions and outcomes. Out-of-the-classroom and study abroad experiences enhance learning, promote diversity, and contribute to the success of students.

The University encourages engaged research and public service in support of economic development, quality of life, and improvement of education at all levels. WKU faculty contribute to the identification and solution of key social, economic, scientific, health, and environmental problems. An inspiring and talented faculty promotes a high level of creative activity and diverse scholarship and an entrepreneurial attitude designed to expand knowledge, improve instruction, increase learning, and provide applied solutions toward high-quality service to the state and nation. The University directly supports its constituents in its designated service areas of Kentucky with professional and technical expertise, cultural enrichment, and educational assistance.

Maintaining a campus of distinctive history and character, WKU sustains a student population of increasing quality. It fulfills its responsibility for access through its main and regional campuses, and through extensive distance learning opportunities. WKU recognizes that its mission continues to evolve in response to regional, national, and global changes, and the need for lifelong learning.

UNIVERSITY LEADERSHIP

2025/26

Board of Regents: Comprised of eight members appointed by the governor, as well as peer-elected faculty, staff, and student representatives. Governor-appointed members can serve up to two six-year terms, faculty and staff representatives serve three-year terms, and the student representative—who is the President of the Student Government Association—is elected to a one-year term.

WKU President's Cabinet: Comprised of the president and twelve senior administrators, the President's Cabinet determines University policy and provides strategic leadership and oversight of institutional functions.
