WKU students who study abroad are more likely to graduate. In fact, low-income students who study abroad are 15% more likely to graduate in six years than are low-income students who do not study abroad. The predicted six-year graduation rate for first generation students also improves by 8% if they participate in an international experience. Study abroad is a proven high impact practice and a key focus of the WKU Strategic Plan.

² Students with a major in more than one college are counted in each college in which they have a major.

³ Students are counted in each term in which they were enrolled in a Study Abroad course.

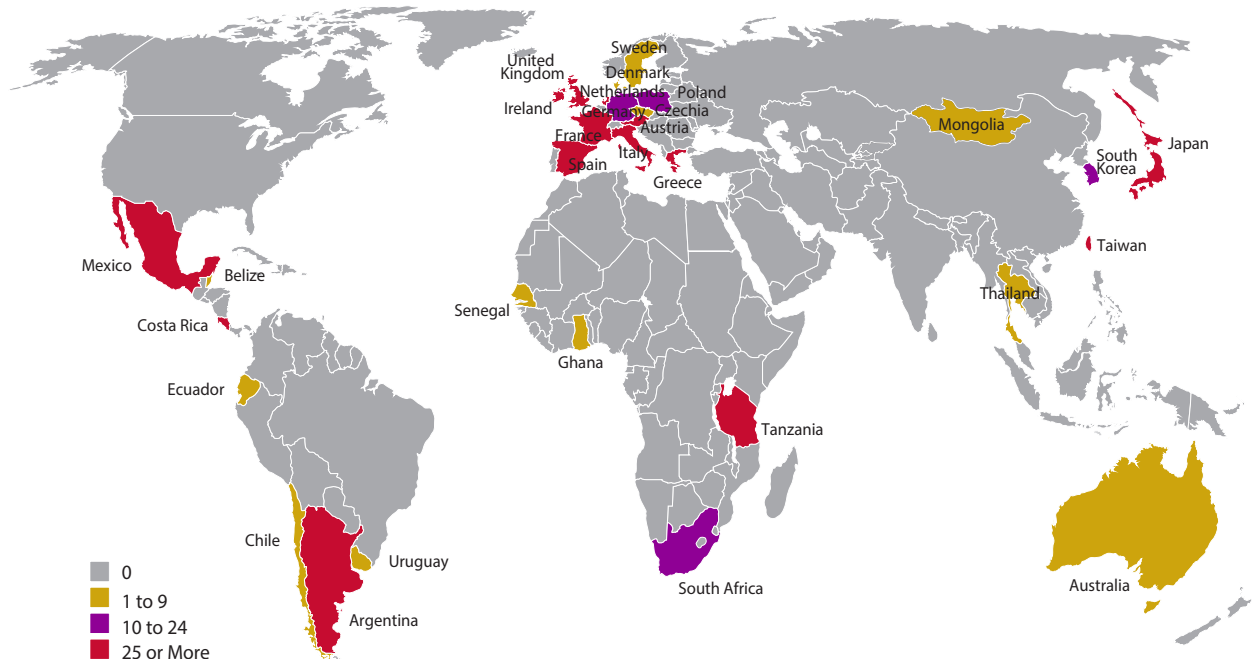

Study Abroad Students¹

The Open Doors Report includes U.S. students (U.S. citizens or permanent residents) who are degree-seeking students taking credit-bearing courses abroad. This chart shows the number of students counted by Open Doors compared to the total number of WKU students who earned credit in a study abroad program. This includes Gatton Academy students, international students, and non-degree seeking students enrolled in a WKU program. Students who participated in non-credit bearing international activities are not counted.
