2023 WKU MEDIA SCHOLARS DAY

SESSION 1 9:00 - 9:40

STORYTELLING FOR FILM

DSU 3003/3004

Presenter: Travis Newton, film associate professor

Want to keep your short film audiences on the edge of their seats and engaged with your characters? Learn the basic building blocks of storytelling used in the shortest of short films to the biggest of blockbusters.

WRITING AN OPINION PIECE FROM START TO FINISH

DSU 3005

Presenter: Price Wilborn, College Heights Herald commentary editor

Walk through the process of writing an opinion piece from start to finish including idea development (figuring out what to write about), gathering information (research and interviews), actually writing the piece (style), and tips, tricks, and miscellaneous things to remember.

THE VALUE OF BRANDING

DSU 3020

Presenters: Becky Goins & Carolyn Brunelle, Balfour

Effective branding initiates top of mind awareness in potential customers. Learn what high school publications can do to establish branding that is recognizable and will stand the test of time.

LOL

DSU 3023

Presenter: James Kenney, photojournalism professor

Love of Light that is. When considering the most important ingredients that make up a great picture, light is right up there toward the top of the list. This session will cover the three characteristics of light and how to use them effectively in your photographs. Warning: After attending this session, you will never see the same way again!

CONNECTING WITH SPONSORS AND ADVERTISERS

DSU 3024

Presenter: Wes Orange, Student Publications advertising adviser

Learn how to approach cold and warm leads on sponsorships and potential advertisers for print publications and how to build and maintain client relationships after initial contact.

SHOOTING FROM THE HIP

Meet outside DSU 3018

Presenter: Tim Broekema, photojournalism professor

Take a walk with gallery curator Tim Broekema to "Shooting From the Hip," an iPhone image exhibition in Jody Richards Hall by Pulitzer Prize-winning photographer Scott Strazzante. Scott, using only his iPhone, captures the whimsy and irony, struggle and strength of everyday America. His twist on classic street photography fuses his shooting from the hip style with the serendipity of life, for a revealing vision of today's world. Start following Scott today on Instagram at @scottstrazzante and get inspired to become the image maker you always wanted to be.

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS TOUR

Meet outside DSU 3029

Presenter: Chuck Clark, Student Publications director

Visit the Adams-Whitaker Student Publications Center, home to the College Heights Herald, Talisman, Cherry Creative and Student Publications Advertising staffs.

CREATIVE USE OF LIGHT PAINTING IN PORTRAITS

DSU 3003/3004

Presenter: Jonathan Adams, School of Media professional-in-residence See how you can evolve a photographic portrait into an experimental adventure by using long exposure light painting to create a unique image.

BRINGING YOUR A-GAME IN SPORTS JOURNALISM

DSU 3005

Presenter: Molly St. Clair, College Heights Herald sports editor

Get a break down of the basic necessities of covering Division I athletics and find out about the depth of sports journalism beyond the game.

KEYS TO SUCCESSFUL REPORTING

DSU 3006/3007

Presenter: Chuck Clark, Student Publications director

Reporting — finding stuff out — is at the heart of journalism. This session will give you tips to follow to find stories, gather key information and tell them clearly.

SPORTS REPORTING AND ANCHORING

DSU 3020

Presenter: Kaden Gaylord-Day, WBKO sports reporter and anchor

Learn about the daily life of being a sports reporter and anchor and how being multidimensional will help you stand out in the world of journalism.

DESIGN IS C.R.A.P.

DSU 3023

Presenter: Amelia Curry, Talisman design editor

Learn the principles of design and how you can use them to create a cohesive and visually pleasing publication.

MEDIA (MIS)REPRESENTATIONS

DSU 3024

Presenter: Scott Clarke, broadcasting assistant professor

Why do the professional media rely on stereotypes of social identity groups? What can we as media producers do to change the way people are represented? This workshop will help you develop practical skills for making your media content more inclusive.

THE ART OF EDITING MOVIE TRAILERS

DSU 3025

Presenter: Alysia Klein, film assistant professor

Discover the core values every movie trailer editor should know, as well as the creative and technical work behind making a great trailer.

BROADCASTING TOUR

Meet outside DSU 3029

Presenter: Brad Pfranger, broadcasting associate professor

See the state-of-the-art facilities used by WKU broadcasting students producing television shows News Channel 12 and Extra Point. Tours will meet in DSU and walk together to Academic Complex.

DSU 3003/3004

Presenter: Ryan Dearbone, broadcasting assistant professor

Former television news reporter Ryan Dearbone will take students on a day in the life of a multimedia journalist from the time they come to work to the time that they leave for the day while also touching on breaking news and the weird and chaotic days that happen in the business.

DEVELOPING AN EYE FOR PHOTOGRAPHY

DSU 3005

Presenters: Ragan Harrington & Brett Phelps, Talisman web visuals co-editors Learn the basics of photography that make for strong visual storytelling and walk away with tips you can put to use right away as you capture photographs for your publication.

SHORT FORM NARRATIVE NEWS WRITING

DSU 3006/3007

Presenter: Mac McKerral, journalism professor Learn to tell compelling stories in 300 words or less.

YERD POWER

DSU 3020

Presenters: Angela St. Clair & Lorena Estes, Herff Jones

YERD (n) - Yearbook Nerd. Lover of all things yearbook.

Do you need inspiration for your book? Need ideas to market your book? Need to grow your program and impact school spirit? If you've answered "yes" to any or all of these questions, you are already or are becoming a YERD. Join in to elevate your yearbook experience with fresh ideas and explore the power of a yearbook.

SO YOU WANT TO WRITE AN ARTICLE?

DSU 3023

Presenters: Leah Hunter, Talisman executive editor & Debra Murray, Herald editor-in-chief Learn about the process for scouting, sourcing and creating an in-depth story. This session will cover pre-reporting, pitching, interviewing, writing, editing and journalistic ethics.

SHOOTING FROM THE HIP

Meet outside DSU 3018

Presenter: Tim Broekema, photojournalism professor

Take a walk with gallery curator Tim Broekema to "Shooting From the Hip," an iPhone image exhibition in Jody Richards Hall by Pulitzer Prize-winning photographer Scott Strazzante. Scott, using only his iPhone, captures the whimsy and irony, struggle and strength of everyday America. His twist on classic street photography fuses his shooting from the hip style with the serendipity of life, for a revealing vision of today's world. Start following Scott today on Instagram at @scottstrazzante and get inspired to become the image maker you always wanted to be.

FII M TOUR

Meet outside DSU 3029

Presenter: Sara Thomason, film assistant professor

See the state-of-the-art facilities used by WKU film students as they hone their craft. Tours will meet in DSU and walk together to Jody Richards Hall.

AWARDS CEREMONY

DSU 3024/3025

Find out which media outlets come out on top in the WKU High School Media Awards.