PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- 2012 - 2013 Park Guide, National Park Service, Death Valley National Park, CA
Researched, wrote, and delivered one hour interpretive and educational tours of historic home known as Scotty's Castle. Incorporated a variety of interpretive techniques to reach different learning styles and increase opportunities for audience to learn by engaging in resource meanings.

- 2012 Park Ranger, National Park Service, Cape Hatteras National Seashore, NC
 Conducted research on historical and natural resources to develop and deliver a variety of interpretive and educational talks, demonstrations, and field programs. Employed multiple techniques to accommodate different learning styles in order to create learning opportunities for audience members ranging from children to seniors. Delivered experiential educational field programs by teaching families and individuals coastal geology, ecology, snorkeling and fishing.
- 2007 - 2012 Historical Interpreter, Golden Gate National Parks Conservancy, Alcatraz Night Tour, San Francisco, CA
 Researched and delivered variety of interpretive and educational programs. Served as internship coordinator for Linking Individuals to Natural Communities (LINC) program. Recruited, hired, trained, and evaluated high school and college student interns. Taught interpretive theory and technique, history, and park operations. Mentored students and coached them through their first public speaking experiences. Managed kids tours, developed curriculum based programs from California state guidelines. Hosted monthly professional development workshops using Socratic Method to engage coworkers in critical thinking about the role, importance, and impact of interpretive and educational theory and practice.
