Western Kentucky University has selected 19 students as recipients of the 2020-21 Cherry Presidential Scholarship, the school's most prestigious academic award.

The scholarship is valued at $16,000 annually and worth $64,000 during a four-year period.

The students were among 58 applicants who were invited to WKU on Feb. 10 for activities that included an interview. In addition to demonstrating outstanding scholastic achievement at the secondary level, applicants submitted personal statements and essays as part of the selection process.

The 2020-21 Cherry Presidential Scholarship recipients include:

Kaitlyn Martin of Glasgow, a senior at Barren County High School who plans to major in Film.
