

GCHS students named finalists of WKU writing contest

Apr 1, 2025

From left, Jada Colley, Madi Bratcher, Ella Decker, and Lily DePoyster were recognized as finalists in the WKU Barbara Ann Wilford Memorial High School Writing Contest on March 29. Colley won first place in the poetry category.
Courtesy photo

Grayson County High School students Jada Colley, Maddie Bratcher, Ella Decker, and Lily DePoyster were recognized as finalists of the WKU Barbara Ann Wilford Memorial High School Writing Contest on March 29. Colley won first place in the poetry division of the contest.

Students were honored at a ceremony and reception at Western's Cherry Hall. Each received gifts for their efforts in writing.

Congratulations to all.

Colley, of Millwood, won first place in the poetry division of the WKU Department of English Barbara and Wilford Memorial High School writing contest.

Bratcher, Decker, and DePoyster were named as finalists in the composition division of the contest.