Fall 2026 Remote

Don't just make the grade, develop skills that employers want no matter your future profession. Join the Mindset Conversation (not a lecture!) on September 11 and practice the Art of Connecting (socially or professionally) on October 16.

RSVP in Suitable* BEFORE the day of the event to receive the Zoom link one hour before the event begins.
1) Go to our webpage,
2) Click the event,
3) Log in with your Toppermail and password,
4) scroll down and click RSVP.

Ready for something MORE?
Attend the information session for our cohort programs on September 18 or email for details. Most cohort programs are in-person, but you have the opportunity to participate in the First Generation Student Career and Leadership Society. Sessions are across the entire academic year and all sessions are via Zoom.

Scan to visit our webpage for more details on any event.

We will co-present the First-Generation Student Leadership Conference on November 7.
Register Now!

When you register, check that you are interested in remote sessions to receive updates and Zoom links when they are available.

PCAL CES AND THE CAPITOL PRESENT- MINNIE EVANS: DRAW OR DIE

Minnie Evans began drawing in 1935, compelled by dreams and later a voice that suggested she must "draw or die." The one-hour documentary film lifts the unique voice of self-taught artist Minnie Evans from conversations between Evans and photographer, Nina Howell Starr. After the free film screening, a Q&A with the filmmakers will be offered. Click here for more information!

COLLEGE HEIGHTS HERALD EDITOR NAMED TO NEW YORK TIMES CORP MENTORING PROGRAM

Anthony Clausen was named to The New York Times Corps, the newspaper's talent mentorship program for undergraduate journalists nationwide. He is the first WKU student to be named to this program. Click here to read more about his exciting accomplishment!
