Please read the following carefully and initial beside each. Submit this page with your bid sheet. Both sheets must be completed for bid to be valid.

(INITIALS)

For any additional questions, please email surplus.sales@wku.edu

Forms must be in Recycling/Surplus' possession by 2:00 pm CST April 11. We are not responsible or obligated to include bids that were received past the designated cut-off date.

To bid on an item, you place a starting bid and a maximum bid. If another participant exceeds your starting bid, your max bid will automatically be applied in $2.00 increments.

We will call/e-mail winning bidders the following, April 14. The winning bids will also be put on the website by noon that day. <http://wku.edu/recycling/auctions.php>

Winning bidders will have April 14th -18th, to get their items but MUST MAKE AN APPOINTMENT. An appointment is essential to ensure everyone is available.

The payment options are personal check, cashier's check, or credit card. If you are tax-exempt, you must submit your tax-exempt form with this sheet or we cannot consider you tax-exempt. If you're not tax-exempt, we will send your total (with taxes added) after the auction.

The community may view the items on Tuesday, April 8 until 6:00pm (including WKU staff and faculty) on the top floor of service and supply building. All vehicles will be available to see but cannot be driven. Bid sheets will be available so you can place your bids on site.

No refunds. Everything is as-is. Please read more details about this in the release form (attached).

WKU SILENT AUCTION MATERIAL/EQUIPMENT WAIVER & HOLD HARMLESS AGREEMENT

It is agreed and understood by signature below that the following statements apply to any items sold, transferred, given away, or are in any other manner received by me from Western Kentucky University:

1. Any and all items are received "as is." No testing items. No viewing items.
2. Without exception, Western Kentucky University does not warranty any item regardless of its condition, nature of application, usefulness or longevity, and some of the items may be unsafe if handled improperly.
3. I specifically waive, release, indemnify and hold Western Kentucky University harmless from claims of any nature whatsoever involving liability, personal or bodily injury, as well any property damage that may occur while moving the items.
4. I specifically waive, release, indemnify, and hold Western Kentucky harmless from any harm that may arise out of my use/misuse (or transportation of item to another person) that I purchased or received from Western Kentucky University.
5. Items purchased that require extra moving time will have until April 18th, 2014 at 1:00 pm CST to be removed from campus. I will bring any tools, assistance, or supplies needed, at my own cost, to disassemble and take away. I understand that WKU Recycling and Surplus staff will not be there to help move the items, and anything left after April 18th, 2014 will be left for WKU to dispose of as they see fit.

I have read and fully understand the statements made above and acknowledge the conditions under which the item(s) is being received.
