Make sure to include your organization's full name. Many institutions have slight variations in how their name is listed. To ensure that you link yourself to the correct institution, check out how we list your institution in the membership directory. You may also enter partial names to search our database. You'll get a chance to confirm on the next page.

The image shows two screenshots of a web form. The top screenshot is titled "Your Organization Information" and asks the user to "Enter your primary organization's information below." It contains three input fields: "Name:" (required, marked with a red asterisk), "Acronym:" (optional), and "Branch Name:" (optional). Each field has a small icon to its left and a "CONTINUE" button in the bottom right corner. The bottom screenshot is titled "Your Primary Organization" and asks "Which of the following is your primary organization?". It features four radio button options: "Test Enhanced Tier 1", "Test Enhanced Tier 2", "Test Enhanced Tier 3", and "Not listed above". A "CONTINUE" button is located in the bottom right corner.

3. Manage your subscriptions – we offer a number of interests in which you can opt to receive information. Make your selections now, or you can always update this from My Account.
4. Confirm your Institutional affiliation – scroll to the bottom of your account page, and use the Manage My Institutional Relationship button.

MANAGE MY INSTITUTIONAL RELATIONSHIPS

If you're signing up for the first time and see "No Results" you will need to wait up to 24 hours for your account to link.

If you need to change your institutional affiliation, use the Search All Organizations button to find your new institution at the link here. You can search by full or partial name. This may take up to 24 hours to fully link to your account.

SEARCH ALL ORGANIZATIONS

In the results, use the Link to Organization button to affiliate yourself with the new institution. If you do not see this button, you are already linked.

+ LINK TO ORGANIZATION

Linking to an institution ensures that you appear in their list of linked individuals, and qualifies you for any applicable institutional discounts. You may link to any institution, including those that are not yet members of CUR. If you are no longer affiliated with an institution, you may use the Unlink from Organization button to remove your affiliation.

5. Manage your membership benefits – if your institution is an enhanced institutional member you can opt in to activate your membership by using the Manage My Membership button at the website here.
