

Graduate Student Travel Grants

Maximum Award: $500

Purpose: Graduate Student Travel Grants are designed to support graduate students' professional development through travel to present students' research at a regional, national, or international conference.

Eligibility: Student must be the first author on the presentation OR the presenting author on the presentation in order to be eligible for travel funds. Note, if there are multiple student authors on a single presentation, only the student listed as the first and/or presenting author will be eligible for travel funds.

Who can apply? All graduate students can apply. Students are limited to two travel grants per degree. Students may not receive more than $2500 in total for research and travel grants per degree.

Fundable budget expenses:

- Transportation (e.g., airfare, mileage)
- Lodging
- Conference/meeting registration fee
- Food/incidentals
- Cost-sharing

What if I submitted a proposal to a meeting or conference, but I haven't received notification that it is accepted? You are still eligible to apply; you will need to submit proof of acceptance as well as proof that you are the presenting author on the submission.

Application Instructions:

- A. Complete the following application form in full.
- B. Complete the proposed budget and budget justification in full:
 - i. Lodging (number of nights, cost per night, total cost)
 - ii. Conference/meeting registration fee (in budget justification, note whether there is a discounted rate for student registration and/or early-bird registration)
 - iii. Transportation (e.g., airfare, mileage, cab/ride-share)
 - iv. Food/incidentals (please adhere to U.S. General Services Administration per diem rates, found here: <https://www.gsa.gov/travel/plan-book/per-diem-rates>)
 - v. Cost-sharing (if there is cost-share, the applicant needs to note exact amounts/sources of cost share)
- C. Conference/meeting abstract
 - i. If you have already received notification of your acceptance to the conference/meeting, please include the notification (email, conference website screenshot) as an attachment with your application.
- D. Once the above are completed, send to your mentor/advisor for their signature indicating approval. Advisors/mentors should then send to the department chair for approval and signature.
- E. Once all signatures have been obtained, the application for travel grant funds should be submitted in full to gsresearchgrant@wku.edu. Only completed applications with all signatures will be reviewed.
