

KY One Health Conference Agenda

University of Kentucky Veterinary Diagnostic Lab.

Stories of Unintended Consequences: Human-mediated Disturbances of Plants, Animals and Pathogens

February 28, 2024 @ UKVDL & Zoom Option

CEU'S: RS: 5.25, CHES: , Vet: , ERRT:

- 8:30-9:00 Registration/Continental Breakfast
- 9:00-9:45 Keynote speaker: Dr. Craig Carter, University of Kentucky
"The Silver Lining in Emerging Disease Outbreaks-Advancing the One Health Concept"
- 9:45-10:15 Terri Brunjes, KDFWR: "History of Invasion, Negative Consequences, and Eradication Efforts"
- 10:15-10:30 BREAK
- 10:30-11:00 Dr. Steven Velasco, KDA: "CWD and Potential Unintended Consequences"
- 11:00-11:30 Dr. Kevin Baker, USDA: "Wildlife Rabies Management in the US and Potential Threats with Translocation"
- 11:30-12:00 Dr. Christine Casey, KDFWR: "Pet Trade: The Good, the Bad and the Ugly"
- 12:00-12:30 Lunch (Provided) Door prizes after lunch: Must be present to win!
- 12:30-1:15 Dr. Vincent Cassone, UK: "Legends of the Call: The Questionable History of the Introduction of Non-Native Species of Birds in North America"
- 1:15-1:45 Panel: "Importance of a One Health Approach Moving Forward"
- 1:45-2:00 BREAK
- 2:00-2:30 Dr. Wayne Sanderson and Dr. Suba Palli, UK: "Vector-borne Disease Assessment and Prevention among Agriculture and Forestry Workers"
- 2:30-3:00 Dr. Brian Zaborski: "Federally Recognized Invasive Species: How Kentucky Partners with USDA"
- 3:00-3:30 Sharon Bishop: "How CBP Protect the Country from Biothreats"
- 3:30-4:00 Dr. Stephen Dobson, UK: "Biocontrol Success Stories: Intentional Arthropod Introductions to Mitigate Accidental Invasions and Unintended Consequences"

