The Western SCHOLAR

THE SPIRIT OF SCHOLARSHIP AND RESEARCH AT WESTERN KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY

2 Emotional Response in Children

By Sarah Davasher

Dr. Elizabeth Lemerise's research centers on the emotional processes of children, how they reason in difficult situations with their peers.

6 Applying Biotechnology

By Beth Sewell

Dr. Shivendra Sahi has begun research projects to eliminate toxins in soil and water, and to improve the condition of Mammoth Cave National Park. He also turns average freshmen into award-winning biology students.

8 A Common Denominator

By Phillip E. Myers and Gay Helen Perkins

Suzan Kiesel is finishing her thesis on the effects of culture and environment on relationship development between American astronauts and Russian cosmonauts.

12 Unfolding the Third Dimension

By Melissa Selvage

J. Farley Norman has spent more than 15 years figuring out how the mind perceives the shape of three-dimensional objects.

16 Action Jackson

By Tommy Newton

After 40 years at Western Kentucky University, Carlton Jackson still thinks he has the best job in the world. "I like to teach. I like to write. I like to travel. I don't know of any other profession that would allow me to do that."

19 Faith to Faith in the Bible Belt

By Luke E. Harlow

Larry Snyder and Tom Russell have received a grant from Harvard University's Pluralism Project to study the growing religious diversity in the United States.

24 Accounting Research Simplified

By Selina Skaggs

Over the past two and one-half years Dr. Jan Colbert has worked on a web site that makes the lives of people in the world of numbers and financial statements much easier.

27 Filling in the Gaps

By Maggie Hilliard

Nancy Disher Baird is not your conventional librarian. Her knowledge and experiences stretch through Kentucky, the United States, and the rest of the world.
