

Dewayne Neeley
Dual Credit Program Coordinator
dewayne.neeley@wku.edu
(270) 745-2386

WKU
Dual Credit Program
Fact Sheet

Brittney Joiner-Jones
Dual Credit Program Specialist
brittney.joiner-jones@wku.edu
(270) 745-3418

Student Enrollment

2010-2011: 1,167 Students (2,529 Enrollments)
Fall 2011: 1,196 as of 10/3/2011
2011-2012 Projection: 1,250 Students

In an effort to continue meeting the growing needs of students, Dual Credit offered five courses online this year.

Instructors

Total of 69 instructors
50 high school teachers
12 WKU instructors (8 part-time, 4 full-time)
7 instructors with WKU's Confucius Institute

Sixteen WKU faculty members support dual credit instructors as academic liaisons.

In late August the Dual Credit Program hosted a professional development day which was attended by 60 instructors and guidance counselors.

Academic Partners

18 Academic Partners
15 university departments
The Confucius Institute
2 South Campus divisions

High Schools

WKU Dual Credit courses are available in 25 high schools
4 of which are outside of WKU's service and invited us to serve them
(Boyle County HS, Highlands HS, Simon Kenton HS, Dixie Heights HS)

This year, South Warren and Boyle County High Schools chose to partner with WKU Dual Credit. Boyle County HS announced the WKU partnership in April with a pep rally and plans to offer as many as nine courses this year. President Ransdell and other WKU officials attended an event at Highlands HS in Ft. Thomas to announce a unique partnership. The Capstone Scholars Program allows students to earn a designation upon graduation for completing nine credit hours in communications and the performing arts through WKU Dual Credit Program.