D. Advisory

1. Faculty Regent—Patricia Minter

- Board of Regents activity
- Presentation on preventing abuses such as seen at Penn State athletic program
- Action item: exchange fraternity property with existing campus property
 - We are paying off mortgage on the property, $60,000 loss
 - Is this a purchase? Seems to be part of Honors College project---see Faculty Regent Report for more information
 - Faculty Regent voted against
- Action item: Raises for Athletic and other administration
 - Large raises for these personnel
 - Should not do this before increasing faculty salaries to benchmark levels
 - Discussed this with several people after meeting; will continue to pursue later

2. Provost – Gordon Emslie

- Senate recommendations approved:
 - Workload Policy
 - Syllabus Policy
 - Sabbatical Leave Policy
- Phase II of staffing plan approved
 - 15-20 additional faculty for 2013/2014
 - Fall enrollment has been strong
- Agreement for Research Grant
 - Rough points have been largely worked out
 - agreement is online
- CPE starting dialogue on adult learning program
 - emphasis on persons with 45 credits or more, but no degree
 - will offer credit for life experience
 - has been under discussion for a number of years

- has now become a priority
- Associate Provost/Graduate Dean search—choice will be made soon
- Library Dean Search under way

3. SGA President – Cory Dodds

- Discussed possible Honors College
 - does deserve to be done
 - but there are other priorities
- Glasgow—SGA has been active, encouraging relationship
- Scholarship process
 - $20,000 given out for study abroad and other research
 - Also: program to recognize outstanding academic performance by seniors
