2. Proposals should be made in the form of text intended as an addition to or a replacement of, in whole or in part, some current section of the Faculty Handbook.

Current:

XII.P. Retired Personnel: The University values the continued support and assistance of those who have retired from teaching, research, administrative, and staff positions. Upon retirement under the existing retirement system, University personnel are entitled to the following benefits: a University Identification Card, library privileges, computing services, a parking permit, access to University recreational facilities, dental and outpatient medical services that are available to faculty members, purchase of tickets to academic and athletic events at the prevailing faculty rate, and enrollment in classes under the faculty-staff scholarship plan.

Retired faculty are also eligible to apply for research grants, to request office space when it is available, to attend without voting privileges meetings of the University Senate, to participate in academic processions, to be appointed to represent the University at academic ceremonies at other universities, to take part in all ceremonial functions of the University, and to have their names included in faculty lists in the University Catalog.

Retired personnel are entitled to additional benefits from affiliated organizations including purchases at the WKU Store at the prevailing prices for faculty and staff and the continuation of membership in the Service One Credit Union Inc.
