DIVISION: Academic Affairs

TITLE: WKU Short-term, Faculty-Led Study Abroad Compensation for Summer and Winter Sessions

DATE:

Authorized by: Gordon Emslie, Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs

I. Purpose and Scope

Faculty teaching WKU Short-term Faculty-led Study Abroad programs have been compensated at a rate which is below that of faculty teaching courses on campus. Recognizing that the development and delivery of courses which are offered in international locations take no less effort and most likely more responsibility than teaching an on campus course, this policy provides for equal compensation between WKU Short-term Faculty-led Study Abroad Programs and on campus courses taught in the Winter Term and Summer Sessions.

II. Policy

A. Faculty Compensation.

1. Faculty serving as the instructor of record will receive compensation that is equal to that provided for teaching courses taught on campus. Winter Term and Summer Sessions compensation is outlined in Policy 1.2120.

III. Procedure

A. Compensation for WKU Short-term Faculty-led Study Abroad courses will be processed through the implementation procedures of the WKU short-term faculty led study abroad model.
