

100th Anniversary of the 19th Amendment to the US Constitution

Presented to WKU Sisterhood

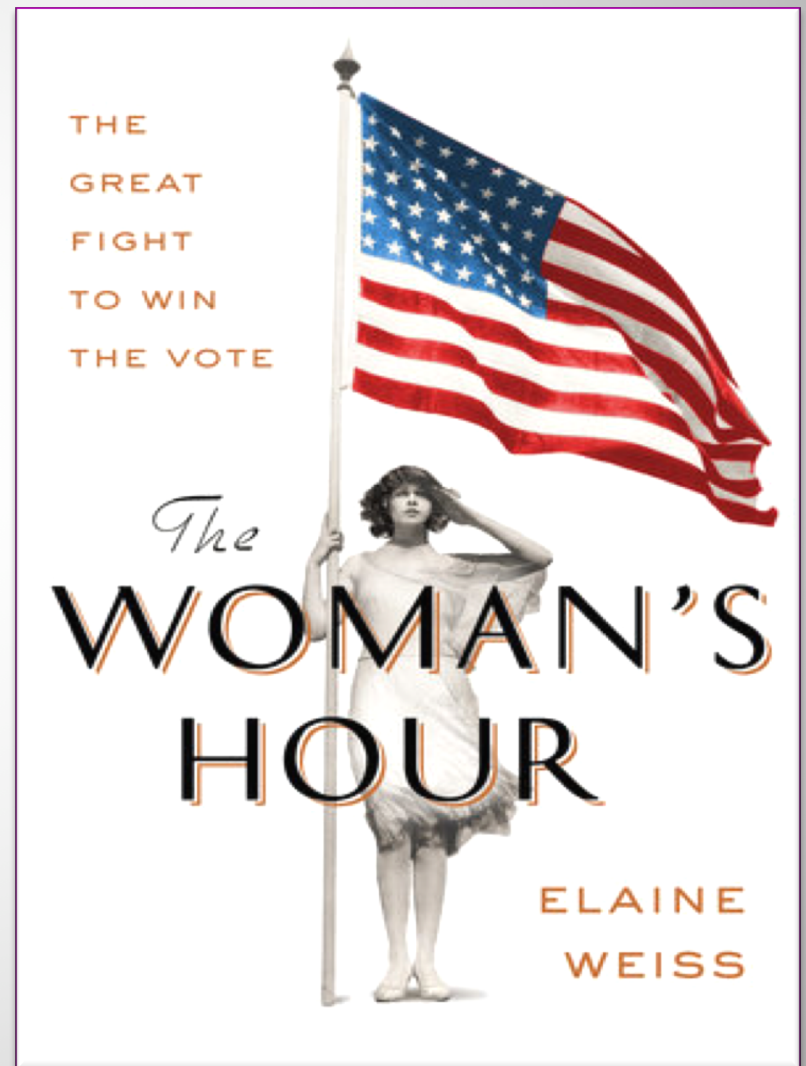

November 16, 2018

Victoria Gordon & Christy Spurlock

“The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of sex.”

Keynote Speaker: Author Elaine Weiss

Steven Spielberg

- Spielberg's Amblin Television announced in August 2018 that it has optioned the rights to Elaine Weiss' critically acclaimed book—The Woman's Hour—and will develop it into a documentary/drama for the small screen.

“The crusade for woman suffrage stands as one of the defining civil rights movements in the history of our country....”

Students viewing political memorabilia of KY female candidates

PS 374 Women and Politics Students
September 4, 2018 at Kentucky Museum

Partners in Collaboration

- WKU Partners

- Department of Political Science
- Department of History
- Gender and Women's Studies
- Potter College of Arts and Letters
- Kentucky Museum
- Library Special Collections
- WKU Historian

- Community Partners

- Warren County Public Library

Partners in Collaboration

- Partners will play a role in this multi-faceted educational program and celebration over 12 to 18 months and will leave a lasting legacy for future WKU students, alumni and community members
- May we add the WKU Sisterhood to our list?

What Questions May We Answer?

Thank you for your consideration.
We appreciate the work you do!

Victoria Gordon 270-303-9368 victoria.gordon@wku.edu