HIGH SCHOOL JOURNALISM WORKSHOP

JOURNALISM IS MORE ESSENTIAL TODAY THAN EVER BEFORE.

---

Thanks to the WKU Sisterhood,
XPOSURE in 2019 brought together a diverse group of students to study journalism in a real-world setting at WKU.

We assembled a class of 12, ensuring that FEMALES and MINORITIES - groups that are underrepresented in the nation's newsrooms - were well represented in XPOSURE.

We were able to do this at NO COST to the students, eliminating any economic barriers that could prevent their participation.

We spent $13,481 staging XPOSURE, or about $1,123 per student - including food, lodging,
vehicles, programming, supplies,
printing and small stipends
for coaches.

The $5,000 grant from the WKU
Sisterhood paid stipends, printing costs and some small
miscellaneous expenses.

Some coaches
returned their stipends
to the XPOSURE Fund.

We thought we'd let
the 2019 XPOSURE class
tell you about their experience
in their own words.
